7. Phil Cooper & Tom Savage at Grimross Brewing Co. Jun 2

On June 2, Grimross Brewing Co., located at 600 Bishop Drive, presents Phil Cooper and Tom Savage. The music starts at 8pm and admission is $10 at the door

Phil is a contemporary singer/songwriter who has earned excellent reviews from the national press, with his thought provoking song writing and energetic live performances drawing comparisons to Neil Finn, Glenn Tilbrook, and Ben Folds. During his live shows, he makes a real connection with the crowd, whether it's handing out dozens of eggshakers, or passing around his "doodle book" for the audience to draw in. Every now and then you'll catch him unplugging his guitar and shunning the stage to stand right in among the captivated audience.

2016 is an exciting prospect that sees Phil turning his back on his life in executive management, and plunging head first into a fully professional music career with the help of a brand new album, Things I'll Never Say. Phil is also heavily involved with the Village Pump Folk Festival, having stage managed the Village Pump Stage since 2012.

Tom Savage is what one might refer to as a triple-threat: one part truth-telling troubadour, one part death-defying guitar-slinger, and one part Country Blues howler. Each facet of his formidable on-stage persona carefully crafted over a 20+ year devotion to the composition and performance of song. Tom is a true believer; a disciple of melody and harmony and tempo and timbre; an evangelist preaching to anyone who will listen of the healing and meditative powers of music. Pouring his heart out of his throat every night, while simultaneously shredding his fingertips in his relentless assault on the beat-up 1966 Guild acoustic he adores.

Tom Savage's music comes from places occupied by Townes Van Zandt and Bruce Springsteen, but also lurking in the shadows of influence are Jimi Hendrix and Jimmy Page in one corner, and Wes Montgomery and Freddie Robinson in another. You have no idea what flavour the combination will result in. This is the time when many musical seeds were planted in Tom's psyche, thus the beginning of a lifelong journey. Where does he stand today? A writer of Country and Folk songs, sung in a weathered, emotive voice with a hint of a Bluesman's growl, accompanied by fiery and fast rock n roll guitar licks (these days Savage opts for the acoustic guitar, occasionally mandolin, rather than reaching for the electric). Tom Savage is not your average folksinger.

Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. Call for Submissions: Art in Schools Canada 150 Projects

This fall, the Fredericton Arts Alliance will sponsor five art-related projects in area schools focused in some way on Canada 150. Teachers and artists: put your imaginations to work. Artists will receive a $500 honorarium and are expected to spend about 25 hours in the school working with students and teachers. The program will cover materials up to approximately $500. All media are encouraged – painting, film, sculpture, music, dance, writing, electronic media, photography, internet-based. Be creative.

Under the terms of the grant from Canada 150, approved projects must reflect, in some way, on Canada's 150th birthday as a nation. This allows huge flexibility. To start you thinking:

- Design Confederation era costumes;
- Video dances of 1867;
- Reflect on Confederation as a blip in the much longer aboriginal history of the geography we now call Canada;
- Build something using the tools of 1867;
- Study the music of the day and perform it for the school;
- Paint a mural showing 150 years of changes in the school community;
- Learn the games children played in 1867 and make them into video games;
- Document the last 150 years of your school's physical site;
- Look at how artists have portrayed Canada over 150 years.
- Create a drama of Champlain, scurvy, St. Croix Island and the Order of Good Cheer. Film it!
- Start with Bliss Carman's poetry and paint his visual images.
- What works for you? Your school? Your students? Your artistic impulses?

Students in ten schools will be able to delve into some facet of 150 years of Canada, in a way appropriate to their age and the skills and interests of the artists and teachers who apply. Participating projects must provide at least one photo of their project and at least one success story at the end of the program.

An independent jury will choose the ten successful proposals. Projects will run in the fall of 2017 and must be completed by January 31. The formal application documents are available on the FAA website, www.frederictonartsalliance.ca.

The application deadline is June 1, 2017. Projects will be selected in June to allow a September start.

For more information contact Katie FitzRandolph at president@frederictonartsalliance.ca or (506) 443-9900 or Allen Bentley albent@rogers.com. Back to top.
