7. May 2018 Studio Classes with Kathy Tidswell

- Saturday, May 12:
Learn the basics of free motion embroidery using your regular sewing machine. Complete a sampler as you learn to make grasses, leaves, flowers, weeds, trees, etc. You can spend the entire day perfecting your skills or start a simple landscape. Information on design will also be discussed.
- Wednesday, May 16: Techniques in Applique
Perfect the use of fusible webs and sewing machine satin stitch and then move on to learn methods that look like hand applique. You will learn to use both freezer paper and dressmaker's interfacing and to attach invisibly using the blind stitch. You will go home with a sampler of applique techniques.
- Wednesday, May 23: Techniques for Creating Texture and Dimension
Spend a day learning some of my favourite techniques. These include working with wire to create 3D leaves, learning tricks for making tree bark three dimensional, learning to make lace by machine and view a demonstration on bobbin work.
- Wednesday, May 30: Painting Backgrounds for Quilts or Embroideries
Learn to paint using Pebeo setacolor fabric paints on cotton or embroidery fabrics. Create your own fabric for a special landscape, shaded fabric for a flower you wish to appliqué, yardage for a special sky or backgrounds for embroidery. You will learn how to mix colours and apply the paints. Special effects techniques such as sun printing and using salt will also be explored. A demonstration using Derwent InkTense pencils will also be given. Comprehensive notes provided.

Classes are $45 each and run from 10am to 3:30pm at my home studio and gallery on 683 Route 104, Burtt's Corner, NB. For more information phone 363-3560, or email kathy@kathytidswell.com. Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. Call for Applications: Fredericton Arts Alliance's Artists in Residence Summer 2018

The Fredericton Arts Alliance invites applications for our 17th Artist in Residence Summer Series. Accepted artists receive a $450 honorarium and can sell their work. We seek emerging and experienced artists working in any media, including architecture, performance, sculpture, music, dance, electronic media, literary arts, visual art, fibre arts and fine craft.

This summer our theme will be The River. We invite artists to reflect, as they work, on the centrality of the River in Fredericton. The residences, two at a time, will take place in the Casemates in the historic Garrison District, from June 24 to September 3. Each residency lasts for one week. Interested artists should say how they intend to approach the theme in their written application.

Deadline: Applications must be received no later than 4pm on Friday, May 25, 2018.

Application forms and guidelines are available on the Fredericton Arts Alliance website, www.frederictonartsalliance.ca. More information is available by email to president@frederictonartsalliance.ca. Back to top.

2. Summer Student Job Opening: Public Relations / Social Media Coordinator

This is a summer job for a student with SEED funding. The Fredericton Arts Alliance (FAA) is looking for a student to help develop its public presence online and in print media. The ideal candidate will infuse our social feed with energy and fun across a range of platforms, generating excitement for the organization, growing our audience, and engaging our community. The ability to revamp our website would be a distinct asset.

The successful applicant for this position will be able to work independently; will show initiative in learning about the organization's activities, and in identifying ways to tell a story on social platforms. This position requires someone outgoing, creative, and organized, who will work under the supervision of members of a volunteer board of directors, yet will be proactive in identifying strategies while keeping supervisors informed.

The successful applicant will:

- Have strong technical knowledge of social media platforms
- Display strong photography and videography skills
- Be able to utilize media like radio, television, and print effectively
- Have or develop ability to manage/create digital materials for our web site
- Bring project management and organizational skills
- Be a creative thinker and an effective writer

To apply, send your documents to President@frederictonartsalliance.ca. Back to top.

3. Audition Call: Calithumpians

Auditions for summer jobs with Fredericton Outdoor Summer Theatre are now being booked. If you are a student and are looking for a fun and interesting summer job and you have some experience and talent in improvisation, acting, performing or music, please send us an email at calithumpians@gmail.com. We are looking for both high school and university students who might have an interest in history, social issues and pride in New Brunswick. You will receive by return email all of the details about the job(s) and our audition and interview process.

Our hiring process is open to males and females, visible minorities and students with a disability. We pride ourselves on fairness and we evaluate our candidates using a process that includes an audition and an informal interview. Back to top.

4. Nominations Now Open for the Prix MNB Awards 2018

Music/Musique NB (MNB) is pleased to announce that nominations for the ninth annual Prix MNB Awards are now open. The Eligibility Guide can be found at <https://goo.gl/3ZZ2Wp>. The winners will be announced during the Prix MNB Awards Show, taking place in Caraquet on October 25, 2018.

The deadline to submit a nomination is May 7, 2018.

5. Call for Submissions: Creative Summer Residencies at the Beaverbrook Art Gallery

Artists are invited to submit applications for 2-week Creative Summer Residencies at the Beaverbrook Art Gallery, in the Bruno Bobak Artist-in-Residence Studio. The Creative Summer Residencies in 2018 will run for 2-week periods from June 18 to September 9. Artists are invited to connect their projects and ideas to the Gallery's permanent collection for the duration of their residency. The interaction of the artist with the public is a very important element of the residency program; we encourage artists to engage with the public about their creative process.

Please send your residency submission by May 11, 2018 to Adda Mihailescu at adda@beaverbrookartgallery.org. For more information, visit <http://beaverbrookartgallery.org/en/about/residency-opportunities-in-the-bruno-bobak-artist-in-residency-studio>. Back to top.

6. Photographers Wanted for Week-Long Photography Camp

Local photographer, Rachael Waters, is currently looking to hire local photographers as guest instructors for a week-long camp for youths with disabilities during the summer of 2018. All photography genres/styles and experience levels are welcome! Previous teaching experience is an asset but not required. There are a variety of time slots available, from a few hours to an entire day or more. The camp is open to youths aged 12 to 18 and will run from July 30 - Aug 3, 2018. NBCCD has generously donated an accessible classroom for use during the camp.

The deadline for applications is May 15, 2018.

If you're interested in applying, please fill out the online application: <https://frederictoncamp.wixsite.com/youthquake/instructor-application>. For more information, please email rachelwatters@gmail.com. Back to top.

7. Auditions for Branch Out Production's Sister Act May 21-23

Set in the 1979's, the Sister Act musical follows wannabe disco diva Delores Van Cartier as she learns her boyfriend Curtis may be more than a nightclub owner and is forced into the witness protection program ... in a convent. Auditions are open to ages 15-150 and are by appointment only. Contact ben@branchoutproductions.ca to book a time. This is a terrific opportunity for those new to theatre, as well as seasoned vets. The show will run September 20-22 and rehearses Monday and Wednesday evenings. For more information visit:

8. CBC Poetry Prize

Submit your original, unpublished poetry! You can write a poem or collection of poems, up to 600 words in length. There is no minimum word requirement. The winner receives $6,000 from the Canada Council for the Arts and will have the opportunity to attend a 10-day writing residency at the Banff Centre for Arts and Creativity. Their winning submission will be published on CBC Books. Four finalists will each receive $1,000 from the Canada Council for the Arts and have their poetry published on CBC Books.

The competition is open for submissions from April 1 to May 31, 2018. All Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada are eligible to apply. While the competition is active, submit your application online through Submittable. A fee of $25 (taxes included) for administration purposes is required for each entry. Back to top.

9. Council of the Arts Fredericton Performing Arts Scholarship

Students planning to pursue studies in a recognized program in the performing arts are invited to apply. The annual award is valued at $5,000. It is intended for residents of the greater Fredericton area. The course of study can take place at any institution recognized by the Canada Revenue Agency and must involve performance or production. Students at secondary, post-secondary and graduate levels are eligible. Information and application guidelines are available through the Fredericton Community Foundation at www.fredfdn.ca.

Applications must be received on or before July 31, 2018. The recipient will be determined by a three-member selection committee.

Information and application guidelines are available through the Fredericton Community Foundation at www.fredfdn.ca. Back to top.

10. Artist-in-Residency School Program Grant, Anglophone Sector

The Artist-in-Residency School Program funds art projects which are based on Fine Arts curricular outcomes, and are a collaboration between one or more teachers and one or more artists. Schools in Anglophone districts are eligible to apply to the program by initiating a project together with a professional artist(s) in any, but not limited to, the following artistic disciplines: music, dance, theatre arts, literature (playwriting, storytelling), plastic arts and media arts such as film, and video. The general objectives of this program are to encourage students to express themselves and to think creatively and critically through education in the arts. Funding provided for a maximum of $3,000 per residency.

Applications for residencies occurring in the fiscal year that begins on April 1, 2018 must be received by email no later than September 28, 2018.

Once approved, residencies should end no later than the end of the school year. Only schools may initiate and present proposals with the collaboration of one or more artist. For more information, please refer to the guidelines, found at http://www2.gnb.ca/content/gnb/en/services/services_renderer.201088.html, which contain important information about the criteria and conditions.
