22. Caryatids and Momentum at Gallery 78 June 15 to July 8

In Caryatids, Eric Budovitch demonstrates an organic development of imagery as his work has evolved. A caryatid is a carved column of a female figure from Ancient Greece that supports buildings, Eric has reimagined these stone sculptures as everyday women, supporting others and the world around them.

The New Brunswick College of Craft and Design's graduating students from the Advanced Studio Practice Program are proud to present their year's work in Momentum. The pieces from these ambitious emerging artists were to be shown at the George Fry Gallery, but due to the flood and its associated delays, they have adapted to a new space and will be shown at Gallery 78 on the day of their graduation.

Gallery 78 is open Tuesday to Friday 10am – 5pm, Saturday 10am -3pm and Sunday, 1-4 pm. Back to top.

8. edVentures Learning Vacation Workshops

Spaces are still available in the following exciting, creative workshops:

Egg Tempera Painting: It's easier than you might think to paint with egg yolks! During this two-day workshop, William Forrestall will give a short talk and slide show on the development of egg tempera paint and how it has affected painting in Atlantic Canada. You will learn various applications and painting on heavy stock paper. Still life painting may be done outdoors, weather permitting. Participants will critique and discuss individual paintings.

- Instructor: William Forrestall
- Date: July 14 & 15
- Location: New Brunswick College of Craft and Design
- Workshop & Materials Fee: $159
- Website: <http://edventures.ca/events/egg-tempera-painting>

Felt Story Shawl: Intermediate to advanced felters with a thirst for knowledge and a love of dynamic, fast paced learning environments will really enjoy Alexandra Keely's workshop. At the end of this all-encompassing two days you will leave with your own handmade "story shawl". Through hands-on learning you will discover a plethora of techniques used to create stunning textures using loosely woven cloths, an assortment of fibres, yarns and physical manipulation. There will be time to reflect on techniques learned, to contemplate colour schemes, and to get to work sketching out your masterpiece. After carefully laying out the wool accordingly your own designs, we will begin the wonderful transformation of fleece into felt. Although participants will have a variety of materials provided to sample with, creativity and innovation is encouraged - let your imagination run wild!

- Instructor: Alexandra Keely
- Date: July 14 & 15
- Location: New Brunswick College of Craft and Design
- Workshop & Materials Fee: $229
- Website: <http://edventures.ca/events/felt-story-shawl>

Intermediate Soapstone Carving: In this workshop you will learn the basics for making a pattern and carving with soapstone. This easily worked stone can be shaped into whatever a person wants to make, and for the benefit of learning a simple shape is recommended to start with. Charles can provide participants with ideas or you may have your own vision. Soapstone Carving makes an interesting and relaxing hobby, and you will enjoy the satisfaction of making pieces that will last for generations to come.

- Instructor: Charles Clark
- Dates: July 14 – 15, 2018
- Location: New Brunswick College of Craft and Design

Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. The Fredericton Arts Alliance Looking for Projects in Area Schools

Teachers or artists can propose programs that would bring an artist to work in a school with a class of students for an extended period. Normally the projects would run from 15 to 25 hours. Artists can be from any discipline - visual art, music, writing, drama or more. The artists will be paid $600 per project. The FAA will also cover the cost of approved materials.

Previous projects have included puppetry, mural painting, musical theatre, art history, sculpture, an exploration of the use of wool through the years, and more. The successful applications will be for programs to run in the fall. If artists have a great idea, the FAA can work to find a school that would appreciate the project, and if a school has an idea, we can try to find an artist to carry it out. Full details and application forms are on the FAA website: frederictonartsalliance.ca. Back to top.

2. Council of the Arts Fredericton Performing Arts Scholarship

Students planning to pursue studies in a recognized program in the performing arts are invited to apply. The annual award is valued at $5,000. It is intended for residents of the greater Fredericton area. The course of study can take place at any institution recognized by the Canada Revenue Agency and must involve performance or production. Students at secondary, post-secondary and graduate levels are eligible. Information and application guidelines are available through the Fredericton Community Foundation at www.fredfdn.ca.

Applications must be received on or before July 31, 2018. The recipient will be determined by a three-member selection committee.

Information and application guidelines are available through the Fredericton Community Foundation at www.fredfdn.ca. Back to top.

3. Artist-in-Residency School Program Grant, Anglophone Sector

The Artist-in-Residency School Program funds art projects which are based on Fine Arts curricular outcomes, and are a collaboration between one or more teachers and one or more artists. Schools in Anglophone districts are eligible to apply to the program by initiating a project together with a professional artist(s) in any, but not limited to, the following artistic disciplines: music, dance, theatre arts, literature (playwriting, storytelling), plastic arts and media arts such as film, and video. The general objectives of this program are to encourage students to express themselves and to think creatively and critically through education in the arts. Funding provided for a maximum of $3,000 per residency.

Applications for residencies occurring in the fiscal year that begins on April 1, 2018 must be received by email no later than September 28, 2018.

Once approved, residencies should end no later than the end of the school year. Only schools may initiate and present proposals with the collaboration of one or more artist. For more information, please refer to the guidelines, found at http://www2.gnb.ca/content/gnb/en/services/services\_renderer.201088.html, which contain important information about the criteria and conditions.
