1. Fredericton Arts Alliance Artists in Residence Summer Series presents Derek Davidson & Emily Kennedy June 25 - July 1

The FAA presents weekly local artists residencies located in the Soldier's Barracks (on the corner of Carleton and Queen) in downtown Fredericton. This week, the artists are:

- Derek Davidson: A self-taught painter specializing in acrylic and water-colour painting, as well as ink sketches.
- Emily Kennedy: A composer specializing in writing musical pieces for the cello and viola.

The next artists (July 2 - 8) will be Emily Kennedy and Kathy Tidswell, a visual artist.

The Casemates are open daily from 10am-5pm Monday to Saturday, and 12pm-5pm on Sundays. All are welcome and there is no charge for admission. Donations are gratefully accepted. For further information, please contact Charlotte Simmons, Summer Events Coordinator, at (902) 631-2439 or email charlotte@frederictonartsalliance.ca. ## 5. Living Library: Talk To A Living Book & Discover a Life, Fredericton Public Library June 21 & 22

Organized by the Cultural Expressions Festival Committee as part of the ten-year anniversary of that festival, the concept is simple: the person with the story to tell is a "living book" and readers will be able to check out the living book for 20 minutes and have a conversation about the topics that the living book wants to share with the community. The scope for the Living Library conversations can be extensive: immigration, integration of newcomers, the journey they took to get here, their contributions to the community, the perspectives that they bring, and aspects about their cultures or places of origin that may not be well known or understood.

For more information, contact Sebastián Salazar, Community Liaison /Planner, at 460-2112. Back to top.

13. Bard in the Barracks to Stage The Comedy of Errors in Barracks Square and Cymbeline in Odell Park, June 22-July 8

This year's performances will kick off with a remount of the company's hit 2017 production of The Comedy of Errors. A high-spirited, farcical comedy, the play depicts the chaos that results when two pairs of long-lost identical twins unknowingly find themselves in the same city, causing cases of mistaken identity to spiral out of control.

Running in tandem will be Shakespeare's fairy tale-like romance Cymbeline, the story of a princess separated from her true love by the machinations of her evil step-mother and the scheming of a pair of buffoonish villains. Inspired by the movie The Princess Bride and staged in the company's trademark promenade style, which sees the audience immersed in the action and following scenes between different locations in the park, Cymbeline will thrill with music, comedy, surprising twists and turns, and stirring battle scenes.

Single tickets range from $12-$20 with discounts for families and groups. Two-show passes, offering the patron's second show at half price, are also available, for $15-$30. For full show, schedule, and ticket details, or to purchase advance tickets, visit www.bardinthebarracks.com or www.facebook.com/BardinTheBarracks/. #### 17. Reading with Senator David Adams Richards: Mary Cyr at Shannex Parkland on June 29 at 2pm

Parkland Fredericton is delighted to invite you to a reading, launch and question and answer session with Giller Prize and Governor General's Literary Award winner, Senator David Adams Richards. Mary Cyr opens in a small town in Mexico where a coal mine has collapsed trapping thirteen men. Less than forty-eight hours later, the authorities summarily decide to abandon all hope of finding survivors and seal up the mine entrance--wilfully oblivious to the half-dozen souls still breathing below ground. Shortly after that, a thirteen-year-old Mexican boy, Victor, is discovered dead in the hotel room of a Canadian visitor--a 45-year-old woman, and heiress to a vast fortune, who goes by the name Mary Cyr.

Admission is free and all are welcome. To register email ppacey@shannex.com, or call 460 8546. The book will be available for purchase and signing. Back to top.

24. The 2018-2019 Fredericton Playhouse Spotlight Series Offers an Exciting Line-up of Diverse Artists

The Spotlight Series line-up includes household names, such as Steven Page, a former lead singer and songwriter with Barenaked Ladies. There are several orchestra performances, including the Manitoba Chamber Orchestra. Cutting edge classical string band Collectif9 returns, along with experimental chamber quartet Architek Percussion with a new performance called My Backyard, Somewhere. Symphony New Brunswick joins forces with New Brunswick-based experimental and new classical music company Resonance to perform an original score alongside a screening of the ground-breaking silent film Metropolis. Canada's Ballet Jørgen, returns with Coppélia, one of the world's oldest surviving ballets, and one of the best known comedic ballets.

The Celtic Tenors will bring their world-class act to the Playhouse for a Christmas show featuring classic carols and beloved Irish holiday favourites. A Christmas Time with The Ennis Sisters highlights this Atlantic Canadian trio's buttery harmonies, as they perform tunes that evoke the spirit of a Newfoundland Christmas. Tales of a Charlie Brown Christmas with The Jerry Granelli Trio will bring the beloved music from A Charlie Brown Christmas to life on stage.

Comedy fans will be delighted by God is a Scottish Drag Queen, a one-man performance by award-winning Canadian comedian Mike Delamont. Thank You for Being a Friend brings the classic dialogue, razor sharp gags and taboo-breaking stories of The Golden Girls to life, performed with — yes — puppets. Saint John-based comedian James Mullinger makes his long-awaited debut solo stand-up performance at the Playhouse, and it promises to be a memorable one, full of brand new material as well as some classic routines.

The Spotlight series includes Huff, a wrenching yet comic tale by playwright Cliff Cardinal about a family caught in a torrent of solvent abuse. Chase Padgett returns with Nashville Hurricane, a curious tale full of stories and songs about a mysterious acoustic guitarist who appeared out of nowhere 40 years ago, conquered the music industry, and disappeared without a trace. Stéphanie Morin-Robert performs a feat of riveting comedy in Blindside, a one-woman play about her life as a feisty seven-year-old who wields her glass eye as a superpower.

In addition to the Spotlight Series, the Playhouse has announced a special presentation of Evil Dead The Musical. This hit off-Broadway show takes all the elements of the cult classic Evil Dead film series and combines them for one of the craziest, funniest and bloodiest theatre experiences of all time.

Spotlight Memberships are on sale now to our current members until June 22, after which we will still continue to receive renewals — but will also be processing new memberships. Full-priced tickets go on sale July 27. For detailed information on 2018-2019 Spotlight Series performances, a season guide is available at the Playhouse box office or online at www.theplayhouse.ca. ## 7. edVentures Learning Vacation Workshops

Spaces are still available in the following exciting, creative workshops:

- Adding 3D to Your Rug Hooking: Whether you are doing a Still Life, a traditional mat, or a depiction of a scene, there are a number of ways in which to add a third dimension to your rug hooking. Sculpting along the Waldoboro style, utilizing proddy, adding beading, shells or driftwood, or utilizing decorative stitches are all means in which a wall hanging can become three dimensional. Using a prepared kit, various techniques will be practiced, with time in the final session to discuss incorporation into the mat of your choice.

Instructor: Mary Grant

Date: July 17 - 22

Location: New Brunswick College of Craft and Design

Workshop & Materials Fee: $209

Website: <http://edventures.ca/events/adding-3d-to-your-rug-hooking>

Registration Closes: July 6

- Traditional Rug Hooking: The Next Level: During this 2-day workshop, participants will work on a 12" x 12" mat. The design will include fine shading and a pictorial. Experienced instructor, Elizabeth Bastin, will also review traditional rug hooking techniques, the variety of materials to use as well as applying a pattern. Your kit will include the pattern, backing and a selection of fabric. Bring along your hook, 14' frame and scissors and enjoy the adventure! Those without hooks may purchase one from the instructor.

Instructor: Elizabeth Bastin

Dates: July 14 – 15, 2018

Location: New Brunswick College of Craft and Design

Workshop & Materials Fee: $189

Website: <http://edventures.ca/events/traditional-rug-hooking-the-next-level>

Registration Closes: July 6

- Urban Sketching: Sketching People: Learn techniques and approaches to sketching people in action and at rest. This workshop will begin with a review of anatomy and proportion followed by exercises designed to get you quickly drawing what you see. We will have time to practice indoors before heading outdoors to sketch. Participants must bring a medium-sized sketchbook a waterproof pen, a small water bottle, and any portable art supplies they wish to bring. We will be heading outdoors so participants may wish to bring a wide brimmed hat and portable stool.

Instructor: Marla Lasage

Date: July 22

Location: New Brunswick College of Craft and Design

Workshop & Materials Fee: $79

Website: <http://edventures.ca/events/urban-sketching-sketching-people>

Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. The Fredericton Arts Alliance Looking for Projects in Area Schools

Teachers or artists can propose programs that would bring an artist to work in a school with a class of students for an extended period. Normally the projects would run from 15 to 25 hours. Artists can be from any discipline - visual art, music, writing, drama or more. The artists will be paid $600 per project. The FAA will also cover the cost of approved materials.

Previous projects have included puppetry, mural painting, musical theatre, art history, sculpture, an exploration of the use of wool through the years, and more. The successful applications will be for programs to run in the fall. If artists have a great idea, the FAA can work to find a school that would appreciate the project, and if a school has an idea, we can try to find an artist to carry it out. Full details and application forms are on the FAA website: frederictonartsalliance.ca. Back to top.

2. River Jam Seeking Nominations for Diane London Award

Each year during River Jam, there is a special award presented in honour of Diane London, beloved diva of the Downtown Blues Band, whose final performance was at River Jam 2004 before losing her battle to cancer. The award honours a local musician, artist, or arts-related woman with a creative spirit and talent who gives of themselves to the community and who exemplify the spirit and character of Diane.

Do you know a woman from Fredericton or the Saint John River region who exemplifies the spirit and character of Diane London? Someone who is a musician, artist or arts-related individual who has a creative spirit and talent, and who gives back to the community? Nominate Her for the Diane London Award!

3. Internships at Goose Lane Editions

Goose Lane Editions has openings for two six-month, paid internships. Both positions are now open to candidates who are registered with the New Brunswick Youth Employment Fund. They include:

Data and eCommerce Coordinator: This position is ideal for someone with a keen understanding of and a passion for data management, analytics, and how SEO and metadata may be employed effectively in B2B and B2C conversion rates. If you relish the demands of a fast-paced environment, have a strong sense of initiative, and enjoy the responsibility of finding and implementing solutions to complex problems, this may be the internship for you.

Publicity Assistant: This position is perfectly suited for someone with a keen eye for detail, a love of communication, and strong organizational skills. The successful candidate will help coordinate author travel, maintain publicity files and itineraries, provide logistical support for events, and ensure important information is communicated to our sales reps, award juries, and readers in a timely matter.

4. Collective Theatrics Open Audition for The Hunchback of Notre Dame July 5

Due to the sheer size and complexity of the score, rehearsals will begin in August and continue through to the show, running January 31 to February 2, 2019. The cast will consist of 11 male vocalists and 9 female vocalists over the age of 18. In addition a choir of 20 will also be assembled and begin rehearsals in October. More information on auditions for those positions will follow in the coming months.

Auditions will take place on Thursday, July 5 by appointment. Call-backs will take place on Tuesday, July 10 for those asked to attend. Those interested in auditioning to be in the cast need to prepare a verse and a chorus of any song of their choosing to be performed a capella for the production team. To book an audition, send us a message with the preferred evening of your choice and we will do our best to accommodate. We can be contacted via our Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/events/1971232976255227/>. Back to top.

6. Artist-in-Residency School Program Grant, Anglophone Sector

The Artist-in-Residency School Program funds art projects which are based on Fine Arts curricular outcomes, and are a collaboration between one or more teachers and one or more artists. Schools in Anglophone districts are eligible to apply to the program by initiating a project together with a professional artist(s) in any, but not limited to, the following artistic disciplines: music, dance, theatre arts, literature (playwriting, storytelling), plastic arts and media arts such as film, and video. The general objectives of this program are to encourage students to express themselves and to think creatively and critically through education in the arts. Funding provided for a maximum of $3,000 per residency.

Applications for residencies occurring in the fiscal year that begins on April 1, 2018 must be received by email no later than September 28, 2018.

Once approved, residencies should end no later than the end of the school year. Only schools may initiate and present proposals with the collaboration of one or more artist. For more information, please refer to the guidelines, found at http://www2.gnb.ca/content/gnb/en/services/services\_renderer.201088.html, which contain important information about the criteria and conditions.
