3. Screening of Long Road to Justice: The Viola Desmond Story on Feb 28, 6pm, Brian Mulroney Hall, Room 101

The evening will include a screening of the documentary and a short presentation from a representative from the Bank of Canada on Viola Desmond’s new $10 bill, which was introduced in 2018 to celebrate her life and impact.

Viola Irene Desmond (née Davis), was a businesswoman and civil libertarian. She built a career and business as a beautician and was a mentor to young Black women in Nova Scotia through her Desmond School of Beauty Culture. Her courageous refusal to accept an act of racial discrimination inspired mobilization for change among members of Nova Scotia’s Black population who were no longer willing to endure life as second-class citizens. In 1954, segregation was legally ended in the province thanks in large part to the courageous determination of Desmond and others like her who fought to be treated as equal human beings. In December 2016, it was announced that Desmond would be the first Canadian woman depicted on the face of a Canadian banknote — the $10 note in a series of bills, which were released in 2018.

4. Duo Jang - Kutnowski at STU on February 28 at 7pm in the Music Recital Room, McCain Hall

STU Musician in Residence, Mina Jang (South Korea - France), and Professor Martin Kutnowski will offer a recital of flute and piano comprising works inspired by the music of Latin America. Additional selections will feature the STU Chamber Ensemble. Admission is free. Back to top.

5. Sonic Concerts presents High Valley at The Playhouse on March 1 at 8pm

Canadian country duo High Valley is returning to the Maritimes and will perform in support of their latest releases, Dear Life and Farmhouse Sessions. While their upbringing — completely cut off from pop culture in their early lives and 2,500 miles from where they now live in Music City — didn’t exactly acquaint them with the Billboard 100, it’s that insulation that helped cement their musical ideals and love of simple, classic country. High Valley’s music feels simultaneously fresh and timeless. Dear Life, their major label debut on Warner Music, is an album that fuses tradition with wide-eyed musical exploration, stays true to their family-first value system and celebrates resilient positivity. 6. Motherhood’s Dear Bongo Release at The Charlotte Street Arts Centre, Mar 1 at 7pm

We’re honoured to debut our hard earned new album in our hometown, with close friends all around. We’ve invited three of our favourite bands to join us for a special night, and now we’re inviting you! Bring the whole family; this is an all-ages show!

Advance tickets are $10, and can be purchased at https://goo.gl/CHWRgN, or in person at The Charlotte Street Arts Centre. Day-of tickets are $15, and student tickets (with ID) are $10. Back to top.

7. Upcoming Events at The Tipsy Muse March 1-9

- March 1 at 7pm: Evan Leblanc. $10 at https://bit.ly/2Gx835k.

  Cathy Hutch is a singer/songwriter from New Brunswick. She has previously recorded in Nashville and her co-written song about her daughter, called “I’m In Here,” has become known around the world as the Anthem for Autism. Cathy writes, sings and performs from the heart. Her music beautifully expresses her love of classic rock and blues, along with soul-stirring ballads, and her lyrics are at once poignant yet uplifting. Cathy’s newest album, called Free Wheelin’, is a testament both to joy and the resilience of the human spirit.
8. Spotlight Series presents Thank You For Being a Friend: Ultimate Golden Girls Experience at The Playhouse, Mar 2, 7:30pm

Delivering all the classic dialogue, razor sharp gags and taboo-breaking stories of the classic television show – Thank You for Being a Friend is the Golden Girls performed with puppets. Prepare for an evening of laughter, spectacular put-downs and familiar friends as Dorothy, Sophia, Rose, and Blanche reunite for this lovingly hilarious live tribute show. This performance will have diehard fans, as well as newbies rolling in the aisles with laughter, thanks to the timeless brilliance of The Golden Girls.

Please be advised this performance contains occasional use of strong language and mature themes or subject matter. It is intended for mature audiences. Back to top.

9. She Said Feck Records First Birthday Party at The Capital on March 2 at 10pm

Fredericton based record label and management company, She Said Feck Records, celebrates its first year. With 3 bands officially signed to the label: Tortoise the Hare & the Millionaire, CHIPS, and Melonvibe, owner Kate Butler also supports several other NB-based artists, venues, and festivals in different endeavours including booking, album releases, social media management, and more. Butler is in talks to add more artists to the She Said Feck roster and continues to support local musicians when the opportunity arises.

She Said Feck will celebrate with a show at The Capital, featuring a mix of artists on the label and some of She Said Feck’s favourite local musicians: CHIPS, Jerry Faye & Band, and Some Dads. Advance tickets are on sale now, either online or in person through the Etixnow kiosks at Graystone Brewing and Grimross Brewing Co. Back to top.

10. odd sundays at the Tipsy Muse Café presents Lynn Davies & Ryan Griffith on March 3 at 2pm

Lynn Davies is the author of three collections of poetry. The Bridge That Carries the Road, published by Brick Books, Where Sound Pools (2005) and how the gods pour tea (2013), the latter two published by Goose Lane Editions. Her poems have been featured on CBC Radio and translated into French and Spanish. She also writes essays and reviews, and currently is working on another pile of poems. Forthcoming from Nimbus is a book of riddle poems translated into French and Spanish. She also writes essays and reviews, and currently is working on another pile of poems. Forthcoming from Nimbus is a book of riddle poems translated into French and Spanish.

Ryan Griffith is a playwright from Woodstock, New Brunswick. A graduate of the National Theatre School of Canada, his play LUTZ was published by Playwrights Canada Press in 2011. His short play SHEPODY, RAGE AND WOLFE was produced by Theatre Yes in Edmonton and Halifax, and both of his original plays RETURNING FIRE and FORTUNE OF WOLVES, as well as his adaptation of Alistair MacLeod’s THE BOAT have been recently produced by Theatre New Brunswick in Fredericton. Ryan’s new play, A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE MARITIMES AND EVERYWHERE ELSE, will debut with the company on March 13-17th, 2019 in the Open Space Theatre in Fredericton. Back to top.

11. Monday Night Film Series presents Cold War (Mar 4)

March 4, 2019, 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

Cold War
Pawel Pawlikowski
POLAND, 2018
Polish, French w/ English subtitles
90 minutes
Principal Cast: Joanna Kulig, Tomasz Kot, Borys Szyc, Agata Kulesza
Three years after winning the Oscar for Best Foreign Language Film with his beautifully composed Ida, Paweł Pawlikowski returns with an equally haunting, distinctive, and moving work: Cold War — a nominee for Best Foreign Language film at the 2019 Academy Awards. The film shares many characteristics with its predecessor: stunning use of black-and-white photography and 4:3 aspect ratio, careful attention to mood and tone, and an exquisite narrative set in mid-20th Century Poland.

Rooted in the personal, Cold War is also infused with the broader social and political realities of postwar Eastern Europe. Based loosely on the story of the director’s own parents, the film covers the entirety of a couple’s love affair, from their enchanted first meeting in 1949 to the aching denouement of their relationship in the 1960s. Wiktor (Tomasz Kot) is a jazz-loving pianist and musical director tasked with auditioning folk musicians as part of a state-sponsored project to champion culture from rural Poland. Young Zula (Joanna Kulig), who turns out to be more torch singer than folk singer, captivates Wiktor at first sight with her beauty and insouciance. Their fates joined, Zula and Wiktor are soon struggling both with personal demons and historical forces that threaten to tear them apart. Cold War is a superbly realized visual poem that resonates all the more thanks to its striking use of choral, classical, and jazz music. It is also a bittersweet reflection on a relationship and an era.

For further info, contact NB Film Co-op at 455-1632 or info@nbfilmcoop.com. This term, 15 limited release, independent, foreign, and Canadian films will be shown. Admission is $8/film, but a film society membership reduces admission cost to $5/film. The series is open to all. 16. Illuminations: Contemporary Silver Candleholders & Plaque Commemorating Pegi Nicol MacLeod on March 8 at 5pm

The UNB Art Centre is very pleased to announce their upcoming exhibition, Illuminations, which honours Canadian women in the arts; this is a travelling exhibition produced by the Metal Collective. The exhibit showcases 15 award-winning Canadian metal smiths and is on view from March 8 through May 3 at the UNB Art Centre. Curated by art historian Laura Brandon, and inspired by Canada’s 150th anniversary, this collection of contemporary silver candleholders honours Canadian women’s past, present and future.

Illuminations features the work of some of Canada’s top metal smiths, jewellers and sculptors, recognized from coast-to-coast: Brigitte Clavette, Charles Funnell, Beth Alber, Ken Vickerson, Jackie Anderson, Fiona MacIntyre, Elizabeth Goluch, Mary K. MacIntyre, Lois Etherington Betteridge, Chantal Gilbert, Anne Barros, Myra Tulonen Smith, Anne-Sophie Vallée, Mary Anne Barkhouse and Kye-Yeon Son.
In keeping with the theme of women’s contribution to the arts, the UNB Art Centre is pleased to take this opportunity to unveil a plaque dedicated to one of the UNB Art Centre founders, Pegi Nicol MacLeod. She along with fellow artist Lucy Jarvis founded the UNB Art Centre in 1941 in the Brydone Jack Observatory.

17. Upcoming Events at The Capital Complex March 8

18. Spotlight Series presents Huff at The Playhouse on March 8 at 7:30pm

Written by and starring Dora Award-winning playwright Cliff Cardinal and produced by Native Earth Performing Arts, Huff is the wrenching yet comic tale of Wind and his brothers, caught in a torrent of solvent abuse and struggling to cope with the death of their mother. Wind’s fantastic dream world bleeds into his haunting reality as he’s preyed on by the Trickster through the hallways at school, the abandoned motel he loves more than home, and his own fragile psyche. With his signature biting humour and raw, vivid imagery, Cardinal expertly portrays over a dozen characters in his captivating solo performance. Presented in our intimate backstage studio space, please be advised this performance contains occasional use of strong language and is intended for mature audiences.

Thanks to the generous support of FACTOR, Music/Musique NB & The Government of Canada. For more information contact Eva via email at artreach@charlottestreetarts.ca.

20. Cinema Politica presents Dolores on March 8, 7pm, at Conserver House (180 Saint John Street)

Dolores Huerta is among the most important, yet least known, activists in American history. Equal partners in co-founding the first farm workers unions with Cesar Chavez, her enormous contributions have gone largely unrecognized. Dolores tirelessly led the fight for racial and labour justice alongside Chavez, becoming one of the most defiant feminists of the twentieth century and she continues the fight to this day, at 87. With intimate and unprecedented access to this intensely private mother to eleven, the film reveals the raw, personal stakes involved in committing one’s life to social change. Films are free. Donations welcome.

21. Upcoming Events at Grimross Brewing Co. March 8-13
   - March 8 at 8pm: Women of the 90s. $10 advanced or $10 at the door.
     Our tribute series continue with a special one for International Women’s Day in support of Living Roots Music Festival & Tay Creek Folk Festival.
• March 9 at 8pm: Kendra Gale Band & Pete Hansen Band. $10 at the door, $5 students or free with Roots & Soul pass
  The Kendra Gale Band, based out of Southern New Brunswick, have been kicking and screaming their way around the Atlantic Provinces, Quebec and Ontario playing house concerts, night clubs, showcases and festival stages for the last 4 years. This dynamic and diverse Blues/Rock duo packs a punch!

• March 13 at 7pm: Wax Mannequin & Kim Barlow. $10 at the door.
  Wax Mannequin has honed his weird, folk-punk anthems over years of travel and tribulation. His songs are dark and thoughtful at times, pounding and ridiculous at others...or all of these things at once. World travelling, multi-award nominated Kim Barlow is re-launching her musical life in Nova Scotia after many years in the Yukon and a recent parenting hiatus. Creative and intelligent writer of songs, skilful on guitar and claw-hammer banjo, Barlow has recorded six albums of her own work and many collaborations.

22. Fredericton Playhouse presents Jeremy Hotz’s Dangerously Handsome Tour on March 9 at 7pm

Known for his astute observational comedy and charming good looks, stand-up comedian Jeremy Hotz is hitting the road in 2019 with his brand new Dangerously Handsome Tour. Having sold out his last national tour, International Man of Misery three years back, Hotz returns with his constant companion “Shackleton the Wonderdog”, the world’s smallest service animal. Don’t let Hotz’s good looks fool you, he’s still “The Master of Misery”, finding the miserable in the world and turning it into laughs is what makes him tick. With six sold out national Canadian theatre tours, as well as performances across the U.S., Europe and Australia, Hotz continues to impress audiences with his completely original and confused, yet very astute, observational comedy. Please be advised this performance contains mature themes and adult language.

23. Lansdowne Concert Series presents Laura Smith & Kim Dunn on March 10 at 8pm at 41 River Front Way

Laura Smith grew up in London Ontario, but from 1975 until 1984 lived in Toronto. She then made a permanent move to Cape Breton and now lives in Halifax. She has produced 5 full-length albums.

In addition to producing, musical directing and arranging credits, Kim Dunn has worked with the who’s who of East coast artists including, Rita MacNeil, Bruce Guthro, Laura Smith, Jimmy Rankin, Heather Rankin, Matt Andersen, Meaghan Smith, Dave Gunning, George Canyon, and many others.

The cost of this concert is $25, payable at the door. To reserve seats, contact Pmm56@me.com.

24. Paper Bag Singers at Christ Church Cathedral on the 2nd & 4th Monday Each Month starting March 11, 7:30-9pm

Think you can’t sing? Been told you can’t sing? But you love to sing – when no one is listening? Well, you may think you can’t carry a tune in a paper bag, but come join us and discover how singing together in a group can be a lot of fun and can make us all sound wonderful! No commitment, join us when you can. $5 per evening at the door (cash only please). The director is the well-known David Drinkell. Come and bring your sense of humour!

25. Yesterday Once More at The Playhouse on March 12 at 7pm

From the creators of “Oh What A Night!”, and “Four By Four”, direct from Las Vegas comes an electrifying new show – a unique musical revue celebrating the music of ABBA, The Carpenters, The 5th Dimension and The Mamas & Papas. The dynamic stars of “Yesterday Once More” expertly sing and dance their way through the hit songs of these pop icons in fully choreographed musical production numbers. For anyone who simply loves great music and amazing vocal blends this is a show not to be missed.

26. Spotlight Series presents Justin Flom, Magician on March 13 at 7:30pm at The Playhouse

Minnesota-born, Las Vegas-based magician Justin Flom captivates audiences everywhere he goes. Born into a family of magicians, Justin has toured throughout North America, and has created magic for stars like Lady Antebellum, John Legend, Nick Jonas and more. He performs fascinating magic using simple items like cards, Coke cans, Life Savers and dollar bills, and videos of his tricks have led to a huge online following. Justin truly has the ability to entertain anyone, anywhere!

27. Documentary Screening: Slut or Nut: The Diary of a Rape Trial on Mar 13 in the Ted Daigle Auditorium, 9-10:20am

The documentary follows one woman's search for justice after being sexually assaulted. Mandi Gray turns to activism and provokes a national debate surrounding the treatment of victims by the Canadian legal system. The event is being hosted by: Margaret Campbell, GEND 1026 Introduction to Women's Studies and Gender Studies, and Josephine Savarese, CRIM 2123 Criminal Law.
28. A Brief History of the Maritimes and Everywhere Else in the Open Space Theatre, March 13-17

TNB’s 50th anniversary season continues in March with the world premiere production of A Brief History of the Maritimes and Everywhere Else by New Brunswick playwright Ryan Griffith.

On a winter’s night in a rural New Brunswick cabin, Terry tells a story to his child, a story of the family’s history with links to the distant past. This story confronts a truth in the present, a truth that is a mystery until the end of the play. From celebrated Fredericton playwright Ryan Griffith (Returning Fire, The Boat, Fortune of Wolves) comes a gripping and hugely moving new work that will haunt you long after you leave the theatre.

Tickets for all performances are available for online purchase at https://tnb.us2.list-manage.com/track/click?u=d1d1ae23b1b588bf23cf3a7de&id=0b7eefe1a3&e=d782370220 or at the Fredericton Playhouse box office.

29. Adult Literacy Fredericton: Call for New Volunteer Tutors

Auditions are a necessary and sometimes intimidating part of being an actor. Join Artistic Director, Caleb Marshall, who over the last 10 years has auditioned well over 1,000 professional actors, and explore what you can do to make sure your auditions showcase your best self. This on your feet, active workshop will guide you through many of the audition questions actors ask:

- How do I select material that highlights my strengths?
- What does contrasting really mean?
- How do I make a memorable entrance?
- How do I get into my body and use the space?
- Where do I stand?
- What do I look at?
- What does it mean when they give me notes?

Please prepare 4-5 lines of text (a very short piece of monologue) you can work with. Back to top.

4. Public Art Call: Victoria Circle Roundabout

The City of Fredericton invites expressions of interest from artists or artist teams to design and create site specific public art for the centre of a new traffic circle roundabout to be constructed in 2019 at the intersection of Woodstock Road, Boulevard de la Pointe-Sainte-Anne Boulevard, and Smythe, Brunswick, and King Streets in the west end of downtown Fredericton, New Brunswick.

The traffic circle is expected to be constructed in 2019 and the public art piece to be installed by July 2020. This is an open Public Art Call for expressions of interest from artists/artist teams across Canada. A selection panel will shortlist artists to prepare a detailed concept proposal from which the panel will select one artist/artist team for the commission. A stipend will be paid to the shortlisted artists.

- Budget: $125,000 inclusive of artist fee and all related expenses
- Note: Engineer-designed base and base construction to be covered by the City as part of the traffic circle construction.
- Eligibility: Open to local, regional and national professional artists or artist teams.
- Submission Deadline: March 22, 2019 at midnight.

5. Call to Artists: Salt Spring National Art Prize

The Salt Spring National Art Prize is one of Canada’s largest visual art prizes, offering $40,000 in awards. Submissions for the 2019/2020 awards begin on January 10 and end May 31, 2019. The awards include:
• Salt Spring Prize: The Joan McConnell Award & Residency for Outstanding Work is valued at $20,000 ($15,000 and a $5,000 Salt Spring Island artist residency).

• Jurors' Choice Awards consist of four awards of $3,000 selected by each juror.

• People's Choice: Rosemaria Behncke Awards are three awards, determined by a vote of visitors to the exhibition. 1st prize is $3,000, 2nd prize is $2,000, and 3rd prize is $1,000.

• Salt Spring Artists Award is for outstanding work by a Salt Spring Artist, and is valued at $2,000.
