1. Connexion Artist-Run Centre launches LAND/MARK Programming with Meagan Musseau September 18-29

LAND/MARK is a residency and dialogue series featuring Indigenous artists and writers working to address settler-colonial histories. Meagan Musseau is an interdisciplinary visual artist of Mi'kmaq and French ancestry from Elmastukwek within the Ktaqamkuk territory of Mi'kma'ki (Bay of Islands, Newfoundland and Labrador). While in residence with Connexion, Musseau will develop a new iteration of the land-based performance, entitled when they poison the bogs we will still braid sweetgrass, a durational performance that speaks to access to natural resources and the knowledge required to harvest them. She will also present a lunchtime artist talk on Thursday, September 20 at 12pm at the New Brunswick College of Craft and Design library. Back to top.

2. Branch Out Productions presents Sister Act in the Tom Morrison Theatre, September 20-22 at 7:30pm

This divine musical comedy will “take you to heaven” with its catchy disco beats and nonstop laughs. Kayla Renee Ossachuk returns to the BOP stage as Delores Van Cartier, a struggling disco diva with her heart set on making it big in the music industry. After accidentally witnessing her gangster boyfriend murder someone, Delores must flee far away from the glitter and glamour and right into the Queen of Angels convent! Will this be the end of Delores’ dream for fame and fortune or will she find her way to the stage ... even with a group of “freakin’ nuns”?

Tickets are $25 and available at Westminster Books, from the cast and at BranchOutProductions.ca/tickets. Back to top.

Freelancer on the Frontlines (Santiago Bertolino / Canada / 2016 / 98 min.)

From Egypt to Turkey to Iraq, passing through Israel and Palestine, this documentary captures the ups and downs of a new and unconventional kind of journalism. Film will be followed by an optional discussion with members of the NB Media Coop present. All are welcome. Screenings are free but donations are welcome. Conserver House is located at 180 St. John Street; the location is wheelchair accessible but the washrooms are upstairs. Back to top.

6. How Great Our Art at Forest Hill United Church on September 21 & 22

As part of the 50th Anniversary celebration of Forest Hill United Church, there will be the premiere presentation of four videos featuring interviews with charter members of the congregation and including historical photos and video clips. On Friday, September 21, join us at 6:30pm for tea, coffee and sweets; the videos start at 7pm. All persons interested in the history of the Forest Hill area are welcome.

On Saturday, September 22, join us for a display of church members' creativity: visual and fibre artists, woodworkers, photographers, authors and composers. This will take place from 10am to 4pm. We are located at 45 Kimble Court. Both events are free of charge, and all are welcome. Back to top.

7. The UNB Art Centre Celebrates the Great Reveal September 21 – October 11

We will hold a special reception on Thursday, October 11 at 11am in Memorial Hall at the University of New Brunswick to celebrate the completion of the stained glass window restoration project. Special guests, classical guitarist Steven Peacock and cellist Emily Kennedy, will provide a musical prelude in the auditorium beginning at 10:30M.

Taking over 2,000 hours and 2 years to complete, there is indeed something to celebrate! An exhibition documenting the painstaking process from start to finish will run from September 21 through October 26. The UNB Art Centre is located at Memorial Hall, 9 Bailey Drive, University of New Brunswick. The galleries are open 9am to 4pm on weekdays and for special events. Admission is free to members of the public. Everyone welcome! Back to top.

8. Sonic Concerts presents Rufus Wainwright at The playhouse on September 22 at 8pm

Rufus Wainwright, one of the great male vocalists, composers, and songwriters of his generation, has released eight studio albums, three DVDs, and three live albums. Rufus celebrated the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's death with the release of his latest album, Take All My Loves: 9 Shakespeare Sonnets on Deutsche Gramophon, worldwide in Spring 2016. The Canadian Opera Company commissioned Wainwright's second opera, about Roman Emperor Hadrian, to premiere in Toronto in the fall of 2018. Back to top.

14. Monday Night Film Series presents Puzzle (Sept 24) & Lean on Pete (Oct 1)

September 24, 2018 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

Puzzle

Marc Turtletaub

USA, 2018

English

103 minutes

Principal Cast: Kelly MacDonald, Irrfan Khan, Austin Abrams

Producer Marc Turtletaub makes his directorial debut with Puzzle, a gently humanist story of an unassuming housewife who comes to recognize her unspoken hopes and dreams through the unlikely avenue of competitive jigsaw-puzzling. Agnes (Kelly Macdonald) lives a quiet, monotonous life waiting hand-and-foot on her husband, Louie (David Denman), and her two adult sons. After an evening of birthday celebrations — she cleans, cooks, and prepares the house for what turns out to be her own party — she notices a gift that strikes her interest: a jigsaw puzzle of a world map. Finishing the puzzle in record time, Agnes soon finds herself answering a “partner wanted” advertisement from puzzle champion Robert (Lunchbox star Irrfan Khan).

As Agnes learns more about her gift at assembling the increasingly difficult puzzles with which Robert challenges her, she also begins to give voice to her long-dormant desires. An adaptation of the 2009 Berlin Film Festival breakout hit of the same name from Argentina, Puzzle provides a sweet-natured glimpse into the complex interiority of what appears to be an entirely unremarkable life.

October 1, 2018 7:30pm at Tilley Hall, UNB Campus

Lean On Pete

Andrew Haigh

121 mins

UK, 2018

English

Principal Cast: Charlie Plummer, Steve Buscemi, Chloë Sevigny

Charley (Charlie Plummer) is a 15-year-old lost soul, pent up in a fleabag Portland apartment with his abrasive father. He goes looking for a summer job and ends up meeting Del (Steve Buscemi), a grizzled horseman kicking around the small-time circuit training and racing quarter horses with his partner, Bonnie (Chloë Sevigny), a jockey.

In no time they become an inseparable trio, and Charley discovers a genuine love for the animals. He grows particularly attached to a failing racehorse named Lean On Pete. But when he discovers that his beloved horse has reached the end of his racing days and is due to be disposed of by the unsentimental and practical Del, Charley ends up on a cross-country adventure through the beautiful mountains and plains of the interior.

This year, 30 limited release, independent foreign and Canadian films will be shown. Admission is $8/film, but a yearly film society membership reduces admission cost to $5/film. The series is open to all. Memberships are available at Tilley 102 every Monday night. For further info, contact NB Film Co-op at 455-1632, info@nbfilmcoop.com, or visit <http://www.nbfilmcoop.com/exhibition/monday-night-film-series>.

15. Chœur Louisbourg & Skye Consort Concert & Launch, September 24 at 7:30pm at the Wilmot United Church

The Louisbourg Choir is releasing its first CD on the ATMA Classique label, one of the country's leading record companies. The CD, entitled Chansons d'amour d'Acadie et de France (Love Songs from Acadia and France), offers an original and exceptional musical program of Acadian folksongs and polyphonic songs from the Renaissance. Arranged especially for this occasion by Skye Consort's Seán Dagher, these folksongs emerge in new and creative ways: rich vocal harmonies, and the colourful sound of period instruments.

The official launch will take place during a series of concerts at the end of September. Tickets are $25 and will be on sale at the door. Admission is free for students. Back to top.

17. Movie Screening: Design Canada at Beaverbrook Art Gallery September 25 at 7pm

The Beaverbrook Art Gallery and UNB - Technology Management & Entrepreneurship are proud to present a new documentary film celebrating the golden era of Canadian graphic design. The biggest question we ask ourselves as a country is "what makes us Canadian?" What defines a national identity, is it an anthem? A flag? Is it a logo or icon? How do these elements shape who we are? In the 1960s and 1970s, these questions were answered by an innovative group of Canadian designers, who used design to unify the nation.

Admission is free, but seating is limited, so arrive early to avoid disappointment - doors open at 6:30pm. Screening will be held in the RBC Learning Centre. This presentation is supported by The Andrews Initiative at UNB. Back to top.

18. Fury: A Musical and Visual Art Evening at Beaverbrook Art Gallery September 27 at 7pm

25. Community Call for Objects: Bound Between Seasons

From September 29 to October 11, Connexion ARC will host artist Alexis Bulman with the project Bound Between Seasons. Alexis is asking the community of Fredericton to give her permission to convert your ordinary objects into temporary sculptures. For example - if you live in downtown Fredericton and you have a set of summer tires and not a lot of storage, let her solve this issue by stacking those tires on your front porch and converting them into public art everyone can enjoy.

If you have an object on your property that you would like to have protected from the elements of winter, contact Alexis. The artist will provide the traps & rope and will securely wrap the object for you. The GPS coordinates of each wrapped sculpture will be listed on the Connexion ARC website to provide public access to the sculptures. The objects must remain wrapped until April 21, but after that the tarps and rope are yours to keep for next winter!

Piles of buoys/firewood, boats of all shapes and sizes, vehicles, campers/RVs, sheds, picnic tables, lawn furniture, BBQs, lawnmowers, farm equipment, straw, etc...anything you would normally store on your property during the winter. If you are interested in assisting Alexis with her project, please contact her directly at leckybulman@gmail.com. Back to top.

Workshops | Classes | Art Camps

1. Two-Day Life Writing Workshop: Arrivals & Departures - The Stories We Tell

The Fiddlehead invites you to join local writer, and MCAF's ESL Director, Anthazia Kadir, for this workshop, offered in partnership with Word Feast. It is designed for newcomers to Canada, but is open to others interested, and will provide participants with the creative writing tools to reconcile and proceed with their journeys from one place to another. Through reflecting and reminiscing on the travels that have brought them thus far, participants will learn how to discern and write about these memories using them as launching pads for their continued life journeys. The workshop will be held at the Multicultural Association of Fredericton, 28 Saunders Street, at the following times:

- Friday, September 21 from 10am-4pm (lunch will be provided by MCAF)
- Saturday, September 22 from 10am-1pm

Participants will also be invited to present their works, which will be published in booklet form, at an evening reading on November 2 at UNB's Alumni Memorial Lounge at 7pm. To register, or if you have further inquiries, please contact us at thefiddlehead@gmail.com. Back to top.

Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. Auditions: The Parfumerie

Branch Out Productions will be hosting an audition call for its upcoming 2018 holiday production, a brand new adaptation of Miklos Laszlo 1936 Hungarian play, The Parfumerie. While the title may not be familiar to you, the story certainly is. This romantic comedy has served as the inspiration for the Broadway musical She Loves Me, and countless films including the classic The Shop Around The Corner, and the wildly popular You've got Mail.

Auditions are open to men and women aged 15-150. No preparation is necessary, but auditionees should email ben@branchoutproductions.ca to set up an appointment. We would also like to cast an Accordion and violin player

The Show will run from December 6-8 at the Tom Morrison Theatre, and rehearsals will run Monday and Wednesday nights. For more information, visit <https://www.facebook.com/events/250027185622153/>. Back to top.

2. Artist-in-Residency School Program Grant, Anglophone Sector

The Artist-in-Residency School Program funds art projects which are based on Fine Arts curricular outcomes, and are a collaboration between one or more teachers and one or more artists. Schools in Anglophone districts are eligible to apply to the program by initiating a project together with a professional artist(s) in any, but not limited to, the following artistic disciplines: music, dance, theatre arts, literature (playwriting, storytelling), plastic arts and media arts such as film, and video.

The general objectives of this program are to encourage students to express themselves and to think creatively and critically through education in the arts. Funding provided for a maximum of $3,000 per residency.

Applications for residencies occurring in the fiscal year that begins on April 1, 2018 must be received by email no later than September 28, 2018.

Once approved, residencies should end no later than the end of the school year. Only schools may initiate and present proposals with the collaboration of one or more artist. For more information, please refer to the guidelines, found at http://www2.gnb.ca/content/gnb/en/services/services_renderer.201088.html, which contain important information about the criteria and conditions. 3. Choir Auditions for The Hunchback of Notre Dame

Collective Theatrics will be hosting an open call for those interested in being in the on-stage choir for their upcoming production of Hunchback of Notre Dame. In addition to the cast of 20, this musical offers the unique opportunity for choral singers to participate in a full scale musical production. A choir of 20-24 performers will be selected to sing on stage during the run of the musical.

The choir will begin rehearsals on Sunday October 14 from 2-4pm. This will continue until closer to the show when the choir will meet more frequently for runs of the show. The show will run January 31st, February 1st and February 2nd.

Those interested in attending auditions should send a message directly on the Facebook page for the event: <https://www.facebook.com/events/247705186087888/>. The director will forward you a section from Mozart's Requiem to prepare for the audition. Back to top.

4. Friends of Canadian Broadcasting Announces Annual Screenplay Competition

Friends of Canadian Broadcasting has been supportive of the Daryl Duke Foundation, honouring the memory of the former Friends Board of Directors member through the promotion of a Daryl Duke Prize. The Daryl Duke Prize is an annual $25,000 prize awarded for excellence in a screenplay for an unproduced long-form dramatic film telling a fictional story. The prize embraces Daryl's relentless spirit for future generations of writers and creators.

If you would like to learn more, please visit: <http://daryldukeprize.ca>. The Deadline for submissions is September 30, 2018 at 5pm Eastern time. Back to top.

5. Call to Artists for Recovery Art Show

Addiction and Mental Health Services Fredericton, Horizon Health Network, is pleased to issue a Call to Artists to participate in the 6th annual Recovery Art Show, an exhibition highlighting recovery from addiction and mental illness. Creativity and artistic expression can play an important role in recovery. The purpose of this exhibit is to show art depicting people's experience of recovery, increase public awareness, spark discussion, teach and change perceptions.

The show will be exhibited at the Fredericton Public Library, November 1-29, 2018. Works in all media, of any size and completed in any year will be considered. Application deadline is October 12, 2018. Please contact nancy.morin2@gnb.ca to request a submission form or for further information.
