1. The UNB Art Centre Celebrates International Women's Day with Interview Series, Mar. 8 to Apr. 14

Over the course of this past year, the UNB Art Centre embarked upon Revelations from the UNB Permanent Collection in response to the COVID-19 lockdown and reimagined the exhibit as an online experience. The final instalment of this project features a series of interviews that shine the spotlight on seven women artists whose work is part of the UNB Permanent Collection. In celebration of International Women's Day, artists Jean Rooney, Jennifer Paziienza, Amy Ash, Nancy King Schofield, Karen Ruet, Ann Manuel, and Vita Plume talk about their work, their creative process, and their experience as a woman artist in the 21st century.

The first interview will be released on March 8 as part of a collective celebration of the achievements of women. Interviews will be released on Wednesdays throughout the month of March, until April 14. These interviews can be viewed online at <https://www.unb.ca/cel/enrichment/art-centre/events.html>. 2. Creative City Network of Canada's Regional Dialogue Sessions: Atlantic Canada, Mar. 11 at 1:30pm

The 2021 CCNC Regional Dialogue Sessions are short conferences for culture workers across Canada. Calls are hosted by a regional representative and will focus conversation on concerns specific to each region. Topics include:

- Culture work in small communities
- Creative tourism: what does it mean now?
- Cultural development as a tool for demographic diversification

CCNC members attend for free. Non-members are welcome and encouraged; the attendance fee is $25 (Note: If an attendee decides to become a member of CCNC following this event, they will receive $25 off of the cost of a 12-month membership subscription). For more information, or to register, visit <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/ccnc-regional-dialogue-sessions-atlantic-canada-tickets-137432976733>. Back to top.

3. NBCCD presents RE/Collection Fashion Exhibition on Mar. 11 at 4pm

What we'll see in the 2021 Fashion Studio exhibition is an eclectic culturally and historically referenced mix of pieces that were created in 2020 for a fashion event wiped out by the pandemic. You'll see a complete conceptual historically-informed fashion line created by a graduate, alumni work that is simultaneously tailored but contains Rococo-inspired details: ruffles, applique, and beading, Indigenous haute couture, and entries for the annual Fashion Challenge.

For more information, visit: <http://bit.ly/3uE9YKY>. Back to top.

4. Charlotte Street Arts Centre 2nd Opening of Kaitlin Hoyt, Dian Davis, & Ysabelle Vautour, Mar. 12 at 4pm

Come see Kaitlin Hoyt and Dian Davis in the Charlotte Glencross Gallery, and Ysabelle Vautour in the Penny Gallery. There is also a virtual tour of the exhibit on our website: <http://www.charlottestreetarts.ca/current-exhibit>. Back to top.

5. Sláinte: A Celtic Soiree with Frantically Atlantic at The Playhouse on Mar. 17 at 7:30pm

Frantically Atlantic proudly presents a roster of stellar local musicians performing jigs, polkas, reels, rollicking songs, humorous songs, desperately sad songs, and the brilliant poetry of W. B. Yeats. Featuring Dennis Beers, Michel Boudreault, Michelle Daigle, TC Richards, Don Rigley, Julie Robinson, Dan Steeves, and Patrick Steeves, with special guest appearances from Julia Bannister of Celtic Kin Canada (traditional Irish dance) and Mary Baruth on fiddle. Tickets are $25 and are available at the Playhouse Box Office in person or by calling 458- 8344. Back to top.

6. Goose Lane Editions presents Hour of the Crab Book Launch on Mar. 18 at 9pm

A trifecta of acclaimed authors are coming together for a riveting discussion on climate-themed fiction. Join us for the launch of Patricia Robertson's Hour of the Crab in this special reading and in-conversation event with authors Catherine Bush (Blaze Island) and Christiane Vadnais (Fauna).

Registration is required to directly participate in the Zoom webinar:

https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_9SovcuXGQLGCVCDOfFIBoQ. It will be simultaneously streamed on YouTube and available for viewing thereafter at <https://youtu.be/5ikUGGy5ES8>. For more information, visit <https://www.facebook.com/events/3896354420407733/>. Back to top.

7. NBCCD presents Hodge Podge in the Red Brick Gallery, Mar. 18 to Apr. 30

Visit the Red Brick Gallery to experience the work of Surface Design Alumni, KVH Jensen, who describes his work as "that 'je ne sais quoi' feel with a conversational vibe." For more information, visit

8. York Sunbury Historical Society presents Public Lecture on Hon. Anthony Lockwood Mar. 18 at 7pm

The bizarre and tragic life of Hon. Anthony Lockwood, one of the most unforgettable political figures of early 19th century New Brunswick, will be the focus of Dr. Nicholas Tracy's presentation in the upcoming York Sunbury Historical Society's Virtual Speaker Series.

This live event is free and will be held via Zoom. The presentation will be recorded and made available online after the event. Contact us for the link at frederictonregionmuseum@gmail.com or by phone at 455-6041. Back to top.

9. Online Lecture: Using Ugly Pottery to Understand Elite Mycenaean Cuisine on Mar. 19 at 7:30pm

The Archaeological Institute of America New Brunswick Society invites members and friends to a virtual illustrated lecture by Dr. Julie Hruby, AIA's Nobel Lecturer, from Dartmouth College. For generations, Greek archaeologists interested in ceramics have mostly focused on the "pretty" kind, usually painted vessels, whereas cooking pots and other plainer vessels have received much less attention. For the prehistoric period, we have limited textual evidence for cuisine and for feasts, but we have vast quantities of the kinds of pottery used to cook, serve, and consume food. By examining the types of pots used at different sites, we can reconstruct what was cooked, how it was cooked, how it was served, and how each of these issues varied based on the socioeconomic class of the people consuming the food.

Please join us virtually at <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/85213488444?pwd=RWNFZ0NienpudTcxZWJhY3paY1dYdz09> (Meeting ID: 852 1348 8444 - Passcode: 100865). For a list of all national AIA New Brunswick lectures and updates, visit <http://www.archaeological.org/taxonomy/term/181/all>. Back to top.

12. Sheila Hugh Mackay Foundation (SHMF) Merit Bursaries 2020-21

In the academic year 2020-21, Sheila Hugh Mackay Merit Bursaries were awarded to three individuals, chosen for outstanding work in visual arts. Annually, the SHMF funds merit bursaries for visual arts students at the three major New Brunswick post-secondary institutions; each institution selects a deserving second or third year student in a visual arts program to receive a $2,000 bursary in recognition of their accomplishments within the program of studies.

Lucia Choulakian, a multi-media artist studying at the University of Moncton, was recognised for her accomplishments in visual art by the 2020-21 Jodi Haley, a designer and goldsmith is currently completing her graduate program in NBCCD's Advanced Studio Practice program. Manny Travers of Mount Allison University was praised by Erik Edson, Professor and Head of the Fine Arts Department, as an outstanding student in the faculty of Fine Arts. Travers was selected both for his creative output and his dedication to serving others as a sculpture technician. Back to top.

13. Adult Literacy Fredericton Fundraiser

Adult Literacy Fredericton's mission to change lives through literacy is more important than ever, with estimates that nearly 20% of NB's adults still have literacy levels below the national average. Like many non-profits, last year was a challenging one. We are facing reduced funding and the loss of our normal fundraising activities due to COVID-19.

We are holding a coffee fundraiser to help raise money that will ensure that we can continue to offer programs to those who need it. We have partnered with Picadilly Roasters in Sussex to offer coffee at $12/bag, with the option of whole bean or ground. The deadline for orders is: March 29, 2021. Contact info@adulteracyfredericton.org for more information. Back to top.

Workshops | Classes | Art Camps

1. Adult Musical Theatre Dance Course, Thursdays, Mar. 11 – Apr. 29, 7:15-8:45pm

Join instructor Courtney Arsenault for an eight week session exploring the fundamentals of Musical Theatre Dance. This program, open to performers of all levels, offers the tools to enhance your dance skills through stylized choreography, as well as dance technique through some of Broadway's hottest hits. Gain confidence dancing in musicals while learning in a fun, encouraging, and safe environment!

This course is for ages 19 and up, and the cost is $150 (plus tax). For more information, or to register visit: <https://www.tnb.nb.ca/fallwinter-programs/>. Back to top.

2. Painting the Human Eye Workshop with Marie Fox at Gallery on Queen on Mar. 21 at 1pm

In this informative and playful workshop, participants will begin with a drawing, map out an underpainting, and complete a small painting of an eye in oils. All levels of experience are welcome! Reference images will be supplied, but if you have a specific eye in mind, please email a high-res image to theshapeshifter.m@gmail.com, and I will be happy to accommodate!

The course runs for 3 hours, with a 15-minute break. To observe safety guidelines during the COVID-19 pandemic, space for the workshop is limited to 9 participants. Gallery on Queen provides that all students will be socially distanced, with plenty of room to work. The Course Fee is $95 and all supplies are included. To ensure registration, payment must be made in full and is non-refundable. For more information, contact Marie Fox at theshapeshifter.m@gmail.com. Back to top.

3. 2021 NB Film Co-op Online Intro Workshops Are Launched!

The NB Film Co-op has taken its cozy annual in-person film workshop programs in Fredericton, Moncton, and Saint John online! What is great about online sessions is that they are a wee bit shorter, free of charge, and inclusive to members and non-members no matter where they live. It's a way for people to learn and meet other creatives that they would otherwise not meet. This year's workshops cover topics such as:

- Directing & Producing Your Own Scripts
- Production Design
- Cinematography
- Editing
- Screenwriting
- Acting

Check them all out, with more to come, at: <http://nbfilmcoop.com/workshops>. Back to top.

5. Call for Artists to Create a Mural at NBEx Horse Barns

The Fredericton Trails Coalition, in partnership with the New Brunswick Provincial Exhibition (NBEx), has released a call for artists to create a mural along the two south-facing walls of the NBEx horse barns. The barns run parallel to the City's Valley Trail, located between Smythe Street and Rookwood Avenue, across from the Superstore parking lot.

The main goal of the mural is to address the ongoing graffiti and tagging of the walls and provide a safer and more user-friendly experience for the neighbourhood and those using the City of Fredericton's Valley Trail. We are aiming to have the mural completed by September 10, 2021.

The call for artists is being done in two phases: the first phase, which closes on March 31, 2021, will qualify a maximum of five artists or artist collectives. During the second phase, the selected artists will be asked to submit a proposed design for the mural. A $500 honorarium will be paid to phase-two artists. The winning proposal will be announced in early June, and the start date for painting the mural will be in July.

If you are an artist or designer with experience creating murals and would like to participate in this process, visit: www.frederictontrailscoalition.com to find more about the scope of the project and submission details. Application guidelines are found at: mural-application-guidelines.pdf \(ipage.com\). For more information about this opportunity, contact info@frederictontrailscoalition.com; questions will receive a response within 24 hours. Back to top.

9. Applications Open: 2021 Laetitia Cyr Scholarships

Through the Laetitia Cyr Fund, Jeunesses Musicales New Brunswick (JMNB) is offering scholarships in 2021 to New Brunswick instrumentalists and classical singers wishing to pursue advanced studies in classical music. Projects must take place between April 16, 2021 and April 15, 2022 and may include taking master classes, attending a prominent music camp or participating in a national or international competition or a related project.

Applications may be submitted from now to April 15, 2021. Candidates will receive a reply by May 15 at the latest. Any instrumentalist or classical singer pursuing advanced studies in classical music who is a resident of New Brunswick and less than 29 years of age on April 15, 2021 is eligible.

For further information, please contact Sébastien Sirois at sebastien.sirois@icloud.com or 253-2739. Back to top.

10. Applications Open: Sheila Hugh Mackay Foundation Strathbutler Award

Application Deadline: May 31, 2021.

The Sheila Hugh Mackay Foundation recognizes the vital importance of visual art in the cultural fabric of New Brunswick through a juried award program. The Strathbutler Award was inaugurated in 1991 to celebrate an individual artist whose career in visual art has been marked by excellence.

Since the first recipient, John Hooper, twenty-five remarkable artists from a wide variety of visual art disciplines have been selected by independent juries, as creative leaders and thinkers who have made a profound impact on the province of New Brunswick. The artistic legacy of each Strathbutler artist is testament to the lives and concerns of New Brunswick people.

The Strathbutler Award, currently valued at $25,000, is symbolized by Manu Forti, a symbolic dirk emblematic of the Mackay family crest designed and hand crafted by master metalsmith, Brigitte Clavette. The 2021 nomination/application process to select the next Strathbutler artist is officially open. Details can be found at <https://sheilahughmackay.ca/how-to-apply/>. Back to top.

11. Call to Artistes: Salt Spring National Art Prize's

The Salt Spring National Art Prize (SSNAP) offers $41,000 in awards, 10 prize awards, with the first prize of $15,000 and a $5,000 Salt Spring Island artist residency. SSNAP recognizes, showcases, and publicizes the accomplishments of Canadian visual artists and advances public appreciation of visual arts. We encourage artists whose work demonstrates originality, quality, integrity and creativity to submit pieces with real visual impact and depth of meaning.

We are committed to mounting a live exhibition in September 2021 while respecting public health protocols in place at that time. SSNAP will showcase approximately 50 finalists chosen by a national jury. The call to artists extends to May 31, 2021. Conditions of entry can be found at www.saltspringartprize.ca. Back to top.

12. Applications Open: SHMF Nel Oudemans Award

Deadline: June 1, 2021

The Sheila Hugh Mackay Foundation's juried Award programs recognise the vital importance of visual art in the cultural fabric of New Brunswick. This year the foundation is proud to announce that it has doubled the value of the Nel Oudemans Award to $4,000.

Established in 2002, as a mark of respect of the many contributions of Strathbutler artist Nel Oudemans, this annual juried award recognizes the pursuit of excellence in the fields of fine craft and design by emerging New Brunswick artisans. It is intended to support creative growth of artists in the early stages of their careers. In conjunction with the $4,000 award, the recipient of the Nel Oudemans Award is eligible for additional funding to support an approved educational conference.

The 2021 application regulations can be found at <https://sheilahughmackay.ca/how-to-apply/>. Back to top.

The Fredericton Arts Alliance gratefully acknowledges the financial support it receives for ARTSnews from the City of Fredericton

The Fredericton Arts Alliance gratefully appreciates the support of the Sheila Hugh Mackay Foundation in our efforts to use new technology to bring the arts to a wider audience during this period of isolation. We hope this investment will pay off long into the future when we will again be able to interact directly.
