1. Fredericton High School Decision to Drop 10th Grade Music/Art Requirement shocks Local Arts Community

The FHS Administration's decision to change its grade 10 curriculum in a way that will allow students to select courses that would avoid art and music entirely has outraged many arts educators, as well as former and current students and the larger Fredericton music and arts community. Although the courses are not being eliminated, removing the requirement diminishes the value of the arts by not putting them on an equal footing with other subjects. This could result in students receiving only 50% of the instruction that is required in these subjects according to the NB provincial curriculum.

Under the previous format, students received 45 minutes of instruction in each of art and music, and 90 hours of instruction in physical education and BBT in grade 9, and were required to select at least one art or music course in grade 10. Under the new structure students have the option to choose from any of the four courses but are not obligated to choose an art or music class. With this new format students could receive only 45 hours of art and music during grade 9 and nothing in grade 10.

For more information on this subject, read our full letter at <http://frederictonartsalliance.ca/pdfs/artsnewsletter20210322.pdf>, and sign Elena Hrkalovic's petition at <https://bit.ly/3sIFtbm>.

The Fredericton Arts Alliance is advocating having this change reversed by expressing our grave concerns about the decision taken by the FHS school administration. We would appreciate the support of the Fredericton arts community in contacting the Minister of Education, Dominic Cardy, at dominic.cardy@gnb.ca, and the Superintendent of Schools ASD-W, David McTimoney, at david.mctimoney@nbed.nb.ca. Theatre UNB's final production for the 2020-21 season is the science fiction epic TomorrowLove™ by Rosamund Small, a cycle of fifteen short plays about love, sex, technology, and the future. Each of the plays centres on a different new technology that rewrites the basic rules of human interactions and has profound emotional, ethical, or moral ramifications for romantic relationships. By turns comic, tragic, unsettling, and thought-provoking, the plays in TomorrowLove™ deal with topics as diverse as cloning, implantable technology, time travel, the intersection of pornography, online gaming, and virtual reality, the next generation of online dating, and kitchen appliances that open portals to new dimensions.

The fifteen plays in TomorrowLove™ will be fully staged and divided between three different nights of live streamed performances. Audiences will be able to experience the plays by buying tickets for one or more of the three performances, or buy a ticket to go on a choose-your-own-adventure binge of as many of the plays as you want on either April 10 or 11.

The individual plays are directed by UNB Director of Drama, Len Falkenstein and apprentice directors in our Advanced Drama Production class, with original music by Devin Rockwell, and staged on an amazing, futuristic revolving set designed by Trent Logan.

13. ArtsLink NB & AAAPNB release ACT NOW! For the Survival of the Arts and Culture Sector

Between January 2020 and January 2021, 17% of jobs in the information, culture, and recreation sector were lost in New Brunswick. The Canadian Arts, entertainment, and recreation sector suffered a 50% loss in generated revenues between December 2019 and December 2020. Help is needed more than ever in the sector.

ArtsLink NB and the Association acadienne des artistes professionnel.le.s du Nouveau-Brunswick (AAAPNB) have released the English version of the report entitled ACT NOW! For the Survival of the Arts and Culture Sector. This report will be a key guiding document for the recovery of NB's arts and culture sector, and reflects tireless hours of consultation and research. This report proposes six main courses of action for the sector to come back to life:

- Ensure a solid foundation for the arts and culture sector, in particular thanks to the adoption by the Government of New Brunswick of a law on the status of the artist, and provide for the alignment of the procedures implemented with the federal government, and urging the federal government to complete the review of the Copyright Act.
- Allocate a stimulus fund and new investments for the arts and culture sector, and tax foreign web companies to finance these funds and investments.
- Strengthen artistic and cultural organizations and industries, in particular by providing more funding for the basic operations of artistic and cultural organizations.
- Foster creation, distribution and professional development by increasing funds for the creation and production of new works, by increasing funding for creative residencies, by granting an additional amount to all presenters to ensure the maintenance of their activities and by creating a fund to help artists and cultural workers to enable them to take the necessary training or have access to professional resources to promote themselves on the Web.
- Stimulate demand for cultural products by putting in place a series of measures to restore public confidence, encourage local purchasing and provide transport assistance.

Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. Call for Applications: Fredericton Arts Alliance Summer 2021 Artists in Residence

Theme: Looking Inward/Looking Outward

Deadline: Applications must be received no later than 4pm on Friday, May 21, 2021

The Fredericton Arts Alliance invites applications for our 20th Artist in Residence Summer Series. Accepted artists receive a $450 honorarium. We seek emerging and experienced artists working in any media, including: architecture, performance, sculpture, music, dance, electronic media, literary arts, visual art, fibre arts, and fine craft. We encourage artists from diverse cultural backgrounds.

As with last year, these residencies will be largely virtual, with artists using their own social media and working with the FAA's social media platforms to showcase their work and process to a wider public. In addition, we ask each participating artist to organize a "pop-up" event as part of their residency. These could be in the form of a poetry reading in front of City Hall, an art display on the Green, a dance lesson at Carleton Park, a demonstration of techniques used during the residency, a musical performance in Odell Park, or something completely different that is appropriate to the artist and the media involved.

The pop-up could be during the week of the residency, or in days following it, with weather and COVID restrictions being limiting factors. If a residency occurred during tight COVID controls or during a week of unremitting rain, the pop-up could be arranged later when the forces affecting the virus and the skies are more amenable.

This summer our theme will be Looking Inward/Looking Outward. We invite artists to reflect on this theme as they work. As different artists in varied media focus their creative energies on this theme, we hope to engender discussion among the artists and members of the public, both here and afar.

The residences, one at a time, will run from June 20 to September 11, 2021. Each residency lasts for one week. Interested artists should say how they intend to approach the theme in their written application and what they plan by way of a "pop-up". Application forms and guidelines are available on the Fredericton Arts Alliance website: www.frederictonartsalliance.ca. More information is available by email to president@frederictonartsalliance.ca. The Fredericton Arts Alliance will try to mount an exhibition of work produced over the summer at the Charlotte Street Arts Centre in the fall. Participants will be asked to designate a piece for this exhibition. Back to top.

2. Branch Out Productions seeks Summer Program Coordinator

Applicants should have some leadership experience and be comfortable supervising a group of their peers. This position is part of the NB provincial government's SEED program. The position will run for 12 weeks, beginning May 31, 2021. This position will include some evening and weekend work. 3. Call for Artists to Create a Mural at NBEx Horse Barns

The Fredericton Trails Coalition, in partnership with the New Brunswick Provincial Exhibition (NBEx), has released a call for artists to create a mural along the two south-facing walls of the NBEx horse barns. The barns run parallel to the City's Valley Trail, located between Smythe Street and Rookwood Avenue, across from the Superstore parking lot.

The main goal of the mural is to address the ongoing graffiti and tagging of the walls and provide a safer and more user-friendly experience for the neighbourhood and those using the City of Fredericton's Valley Trail. We are aiming to have the mural completed by September 10, 2021.

The call for artists is being done in two phases: the first phase, which closes on March 31, 2021, will qualify a maximum of five artists or artist collectives. During the second phase, the selected artists will be asked to submit a proposed design for the mural. A $500 honorarium will be paid to phase-two artists. The winning proposal will be announced in early June, and the start date for painting the mural will be in July.

If you are an artist or designer with experience creating murals and would like to participate in this process, visit: www.frederictontrailscoalition.com to find more about the scope of the project and submission details. Application guidelines are found at: mural-application-guidelines.pdf \(ipage.com\).
