1. Fredericton Arts Alliance Summer Residencies present Maria Bourgeois from Aug. 8 to 14

Maria Bourgeois will write a new song every day as part of her Summer Residency with the Fredericton Arts Alliance. Clips of the songs will be shared online, along with Bourgeois' commentary on her inspiration and process while writing music. The songs written during the week will be recorded after the residency. Once recorded, they will be shared online for free via SoundCloud.

Bourgeois will hold a concert on August 14 at 3pm at the Fredericton Region Museum. The concert will be outdoors on the balcony, with a maximum of thirty guests allowed, though more can listen from Officer's Square. Masks and sanitization will be required for entry. Admission is free.

Bourgeois has over 30 years of experience in professional theatre as a producer, director, writer, and actress, as well as over 20 years of experience with song writing, composition, and singing. She is a member of the band Reserving Rabbits.

2. Herbert the Cow Productions & Nasty Shadows Theatre Co. presents The Fifth Wall II on Aug. 5, 6 & 7 at 6:30pm

- I Left an Entity in my Room?!: Undertaking a theatrical exorcism – Part I-X of "The Great Seclusion" myth, written and performed by Scott Shannon (Nasty Shadows Theatre Co.)

X is attempting to create a show and needs your help. In his Shadow development, X has realized how vital it is to exorcize the entity holding his theatrical evolution hostage. If the combined presence of Spalding Gray and Daniel Maclvor are not dealt with by X, The Shepards has her own plan for banishing this unwanted demon of performance.

- The Hole: A Sunny Corner Story: An exploration of rural life – Part III of the "Sunny Corner Stories" anthology, written and directed by Corenski Nowlan (Herbert the Cow Productions); starring Robbie Lynn and Jason McIntyre

Two good ole Sunny Corner lads. One shovel. Lots'a beer. Way too many secrets. Cousins, Shawn and Donnie grew up under the same roof at their Nan's house. One stayed. One left. They couldn't be more different. Or are they? After two years apart they're together again: way up in the woods, up to no good, in over their heads. It's time to dig... for the truth.

This performance is pay-what-you-will with a suggest donation of $10. RSVP/send an e-Transfer to nastysadows@gmail.com, or pay on site. Contains mentions of adult subject matter and use of adult language; recommended for 16+ or 13+ with parental guidance. For more information, visit <https://bit.ly/3juUowH>. Back to top.

3. Sylvie Pilotte at Gallery on Queen on Aug. 6 at 5:30pm

Sylvie Pilotte is inspired by the observation of the mores specific to her environment in an attempt to understand its social values, which seem immutable or even unavoidable, and which influence our collective behaviour. Her technique includes collage, drawing, pencil markers, and the integration of objects. Through photomontage, the black and white photo is paired with the coloured one so as to interweave the past in the present and nurture a reflection on technology, ecology, feminism, etc.

11. Fredericton Playhouse Re-Opening Survey

Please take our short, 2-minute survey about reopening policies. With the Province of New Brunswick moving to the "green phase" of recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic, the Fredericton Playhouse will reopen at full capacity in September with a full season of events. And we're pumped! As we plan for our reopening, we're looking for your opinions on measures such as vaccination requirements and masks – measures that Playhouse could implement to provide a healthier and safer environment for our audience.

To take part in this survey, visit: <https://bit.ly/3zZ1wb6>. To thank you for taking part in our survey, you may provide your email address at the end to be entered into one of three draws for a $100 Playhouse gift certificate. Back to top.

Workshops | Classes | Art Camps

1. Dramatic Clouds Painting Workshop at Gallery on Queen Aug. 29 at 1pm

Each participant will create an underdrawing, an underpainting, and complete a colour study of a dramatic sky in oil paints. All levels of experience are welcome. The course fee is $120 and all supplies are included. To register, the fee must be paid up-front and is non-refundable. E-Transfers are preferred. 2. UNB & Artslink NB New Online Certificate in Contemporary Management in Arts & Culture

The UNB College of Extended Learning, in association with ArtsLink NB and the Government of New Brunswick, is proud to offer our brand-new online certificate in Contemporary Management in Arts & Culture (CMAC). The first of its kind in Atlantic Canada, the CMAC certificate is a one-of-a-kind program built specifically for developing the skills and knowledge of people that aspire to be arts leaders in Atlantic Canada and across the country.

The CMAC certificate is fully online and spans only one year with only one course per academic semester. Courses include Governance & Leadership, Arts Operations, and Relationship Management. Students will also complete a Capstone Project in which they will complete a business plan for an organization.

Thanks to generous support from the Government of New Brunswick, students are able to take the entire certificate for only $250. Limited spots are available. Learn more at <https://www.unb.ca/cel/enrichment/music/music-conservatory/cmac/index.html>. Back to top.

3. Fall Music Workshops open for Registration at UNB Art Centre

UNB's music conservatory has opened its line-up of fall workshops. Students can participate in a variety of workshops for different ages and interests. After a year of virtual workshops, we are excited to be returning to in-person music-making and exploration.

Workshops include:

- Group Guitar
- Group Piano
- Group Piano for Kids
- Jazz Improv
- Movement for Musicians
- Song writing
- Synthesizers

To learn more and to register: <https://www.unb.ca/cel/enrichment/music/music-conservatory/workshops-classes.html>. Back to top.

4. UNB Ensembles open for Registration at UNB Art Centre

After a year of alternative delivery methods, the UNB Music Conservatory is excited to host its ensembles in Memorial Hall again this fall. They are thrilled to introduce two new options for string students: Little String Orchestra is for students aged five to seven who are new to the violin; and Junior String Orchestra is for violinists aged eight to 10 who have one- or two-years' experience. They are also hosting string orchestras for older students and the Band and Chorale this fall.

- Little String Orchestra (ages five to seven)
- Junior String Orchestra (ages eight to 10)
- Intermediate String Orchestra (ages six to 13)
- Senior String Orchestra (ages 13 to 18)
- UNB Concert Band (ages 16 and up)
- UNB Chorale (ages 16 and up)

Ensembles will be starting in mid-September. Sign up now to start or continue your journey! The UNB Concert Band and UNB Chorale is free for UNB students and faculty. All ensembles are open to the general public. To learn more: <https://www.unb.ca/cel/enrichment/music/music-conservatory/ensembles.html>, call 458-7259 or email conserv@unb.ca. Back to top.

Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. Fredericton Arts Alliance seeks Guest Editor for ARTSnews for 2-weeks in October 2021

Deadline: Sunday, August 15, 2021

The Fredericton Arts Alliance is seeking an individual to act as a Guest Editor of the ARTSnews while the primary Editor is out of office in October 2021. Requirements include:

- Must have access to a computer with document editing software (Microsoft Windows is currently used, but other programs such as Google Docs, LibreOffice, Open Office, etc. could be used as well)
- Must be able to edit PDFs and add links using editors such as Adobe Acrobat, PDFescape, etc.
- Some familiarity with Gmail and Mail Chimp would be considered an asset, though these can be taught.
- Will be required to upload the final document using FTP program such as FileZilla.
- Must be available for training with current Editor to understand process and timelines/deadlines during August or September 2021.

The take-over would happen on October 7, 2021 and would conclude once the weekly newsletter has been sent to subscribers on October 21, 2021. The primary editor will then return to her duties. This absence covers the two weeks, and includes issues on October 14 and 21.

This job can be done from home with training occurring either over Zoom or, if preferred, in person with the current editor. In terms of a time-commitment, the time it takes to edit, create, and release the weekly newsletter can vary depending upon the number of notices received, but typically averages 7-10 hours per week.

If you are interested, please reach out to Bridget Spence at fredericktonartsnews@gmail.com with a resume and/or any questions you have. Back to top.

2. Employment Opportunity: Bilingual Ticketing Supervisor at the Fredericton Playhouse

Deadline: Friday, August 6, 2021

Reporting to the Ticketing Operations Manager, the Ticketing Supervisor is responsible for the supervision of Ticketing Agents and maintaining a high level of customer service. Although they report to the Ticketing Operations Manager, their day-to-day work is supervised by the Assistant Ticketing Operations Manager. They also provide front line services to the public.

Full job details can be found at <https://fredplayhouse.wordpress.com/2021/07/28/employment-opportunity-bilingual-ticketing-supervisor/>. Please send resumes to wendy@theplayhouse.ca. Back to top.

3. Join the Board of Fredericton Playhouse Inc.

Fredericton Playhouse Inc. is a charitable, non-profit company with a mandate to manage and develop a live performance venue in downtown Fredericton. The board of directors is comprised of individuals who share the values of the organization, contribute to the board's decision-making, and have a personal commitment to the organization's vision and mission. The board's primary role is to establish policies, undertake strategic planning, manage executive performance, develop resources and influence, and provide linkages to stakeholders and to the larger community.

New board members begin their service on January 1, and serve a term of three years. If you are interested in contributing to the community as a volunteer board member, please provide a written submission, including your CV, by August 15, 2021 to admin@theplayhouse.ca. 4. Audition Call: Branch Out Productions' Songs for a New World on Aug. 27 at 7pm

Songs for a New World is a theatrical song cycle about the moments that shape the world around us. It features songs that are united only by that theme, and transports us from a window ledge in Brooklyn to the deck of a Spanish sailing ship, to the North Pole, and home again. The show features little dialogue but still manages to tell unique and captivating stories.

Branch Out Productions will be presenting this show in a, one day only, special fundraiser for Capital Region Mental Health & Addictions Association on November 27, 2021. This show will feature a cast of 4 to 12 people who must be strong actors and singers. They must be able to carry their own harmony line. Actors of all races, abilities, genders and orientations are encouraged to audition.

Auditions are open to those aged 16 and over. There is nothing to prepare for the audition, during the audition you will be taught a piece from the show. An audition form must be completed prior to the audition, and can be found at <https://forms.gle/Y4pndLec9CSf1ViA9>. For more information, contact Ben@branchoutproductions.ca. Back to top.

5. Playhouse seeks Artists for InterMISSION Artist Residency Program

Deadline: August 31, 2021

The Fredericton Playhouse will continue to offer New Brunswick artists the opportunity to use its professional facilities and services in a series of creative artist residencies. Applications are now being accepted for available residency time during the summer of 2022 and winter of 2023. The artist residency program called InterMISSION, established during the pandemic, will continue to expand the capacity and activities in the theatre during otherwise quiet periods in the annual rental and programming cycle. Designed for local artists to nurture and support creativity and innovative practices in their craft, the InterMISSION residency program offers artists mentorship, space, and support.

Residencies are open to theatre artists, musicians, choreographers, composers, dancers, visual artists, designers, etc. Individual artists, artistic companies, collectives, or any combination thereof working collaboratively are eligible to apply. Artists must be professional artists as defined by ArtsNB and may be at any stage of their career. Priority will be given to applications that include artists residing in the greater Fredericton region.

For full eligibility and application details, please visit <https://bit.ly/3jPYdhs>, or contact Lesandra Dodson, Director of Programming, at lesandra@theplayhouse.ca. Playhouse technical staff, who are specializing in theatrical lighting, sound, and multi-media arts, are available to the artists to work on individually designed proposals of development and exploration. The Playhouse staff is also available to assist with designing proposals, grant writing, production tutorials or other educational components involved in an artist's creative project. 6. Demonic Brilliance Film Festival

Presented by Creeker Films and Steam Powered Studios, the Demonic Brilliance Film Festival (DBFF) is a three-day celebration of horror, showcasing some of the most sinister horror films from around the world and the people who make them.

We love all things horror, from splatter to slasher, especially films that challenge expectations. We want films that take no prisoners and go all in! If it's a splatter film, we want blood, guts and body fluids! If it's a supernatural story we want spooky atmosphere and amazing production value! Basically, we're looking for horror films that kick ass! At DBFF we welcome filmmakers' who understand the importance of good acting, stellar lighting, cinematography and detailed production design. We'd love to see horror shorts that make you think and carry themselves with intelligence. Does your film have what it takes to be awarded the Best Film trophy at the Demonic Brilliance Film Festival?

7. Upcoming New Brunswick Arts Board (artsnb) Deadlines

Career Development Program - Deadline: September 1, 2021

The Career Development program is designed to recognize and encourage arts professionals who have demonstrated exceptional artistic talent and potential, and who are pursuing a career in the arts. The program is divided in four components:

- The Arts by Invitation component is for assistance to present work by invitation in established arts events.
- The Artist in Residence component is for assistance for participation in residency opportunities of three (3) months and less. The artists in residence are to contribute to the promotion and understanding of the arts by means of the artists' contact with the clientele of the establishments.
- The Professional Development component is for assistance for professional development scholarships for studies and mentorships.
- The Professionalization and Promotion component is designed to assist artists to produce tools related to the promotion of the artist's work and career with a view to broadening the dissemination network for their work and diversifying their sources for funding.

For more information and to apply: <https://artsnb.ca/web/programs/career-development/>,

The Equinox Program for Indigenous Artists - Deadline: September 15, 2021

The Equinox program supports Indigenous artists, curators and groups to engage in artistic creation and professional development. Eligible projects can range from:

- Research and development for the creation of new works
- Creation and presentation of artistic work, or
- Activities that support and strengthen the Indigenous arts community

The Equinox program provides flexible, short-term support to individual Indigenous artists or collectives applying on behalf of small or large groups, arts groups, organizations, community groups, independent arts administrators, and artistic and cultural mediators. Grant funds may be used for organizational development and professional development that will have a positive impact on building the arts ecosystem in Indigenous communities.

The sponsors for this award are: Cat LeBlanc Music, Maureen LeBlanc, Jan Thompson, Gretchen Kelbaugh, Lorna Kirk, Janet Crawford, Bob Paul, Mary Conlon, Kathy Eagan, and Sophie Lavoie

The NB Film Co-op proudly announces the Jane LeBlanc Filmmaker Award for 2021. In honour of a woman who lived life to the fullest and courageously took action in making her dreams a reality. A message that will hopefully inspire the winner of this award in realizing his/her dream of making films a reality. The Jane LeBlanc Filmmaker Award has increased for 2021. It is now valued at $2,080.00 (for first or second time NB resident filmmakers), and is presented by the New Brunswick Filmmakers' Co-operative and the LeBlanc Family.

- $200 in workshops/training from the NBFC (2022)
- $800 cash from The LeBlanc Family and generous donations
- $1,000 in equipment and post services from NBFC
- $80 (full membership for two years) from the NBFC
- Workshopping of winning screenplay

Submit a 4-5 page script for video poem, experimental, drama, or comedy along with a short paragraph talking about your hopes and dreams, what the project means to you, and why the grant is essential for you. Apply at info@nbfilmcoop.com. Back to top.

9. Choral Singers invited to Choral Fest 2021: Celebrating Music that We Can Make Together

Every year for almost 40 years, singers from New Brunswick, around the Maritimes, and beyond have gathered for the New Brunswick Choral Federation's Choral Fest to rehearse and perform a significant work of choral music under one of Canada's leading conductors.

Choral Fest 2020, like choral events everywhere, was cancelled due to necessary public health restrictions. Now, thanks to vaccinations and increasing knowledge of how to prevent transmission, the performing arts are coming back to life. Choral Fest 2021 will follow all public health guidelines, and will incorporate additional expert recommendations specific to choral events. Registrants' health and safety will be our priority.

- Where: Christ Church Cathedral
- When: October 15 to 17, 2021
- Music:
 - Requiem by John Rutter (selections)
 - Aesop's Fables by Bob Chilcott (selections)
 - Sing Praise to God Who Reigns Above by Robin Bayley
 - Ambe by Andrew Balfour
- Clinician: Dr. Kiera Galway
- Accompanist: Thomas Gonder

Singers are asked to reserve their space by pre-registering via email or online form, available on our web site. Spaces are limited. A certain number of spaces are reserved for tenor and bass voices. We are not asking for payment at this time. We will invite registrants to confirm their attendance with payment beginning September, deadline Tuesday, September 14, 2021. For details and to pre-register, visit our web site <https://nbcfsite.wordpress.com/choral-fest/>, or email the New Brunswick Choral Federation at nbchoralfed@gmail.com. Back to top.

10. Registration Open for 2021 NB Cell Phone Film Challenge

The 2021 NB Cell Phone Film Challenge is a chance to do just that and create a movie with the amazing tool you carry all the time: your cell phone! You really don't need fancy equipment to make a film; you just need your cell phone and a story. This challenge puts everyone on a level playing field where no one has any of that fancy, expensive filmmaking stuff. It's just you, your phone and your wild creative spirit.

Who can enter? All residents of NB of any age can participate, and it is free to enter. Is there a big red carpet event? No, but there is a $100 prize for the best film as selected by our panel of judges. How does this work?

- Step 1: Put together a team of 1-3 NB residents.
- Step 2: Register until September 20, 2021 at <https://www.kenlarproductions.com/home#h.mtjpmwcl7kqe>
- Step 3: On Thursday September 23 at 6pm you will receive an inspiration package from which to create your film and the 72 hour countdown begins.
- Step 4: Write your script. Shoot it. Edit it. Upload it by Sunday, September 26 at 6pm.

Official Rules:

1. Participants must follow the Government of New Brunswick COVID guidelines.
2. All films must be family friendly. The judges reserve the right to disqualify submissions that include graphic violence or language, discrimination or phobia against a person or group, explicit sexuality, etc.
3. Only cell phones or tablets can be used to record video or sound. No other recording devices are permitted and this includes drones and other cameras such as DSLR, mirrorless, point-and-shoot, or GoPro/action.
4. Any software or app can be used to record video or sound on the cell phone or tablet. This includes Zoom, MS Teams and other web-conferencing software.
5. Do not use stock footage or images.
6. Do not use copyrighted music unless you have a license or permission to do so.
7. Organizers and judges of the competition are prohibited from participating in it.
8. Submissions will be scored by each judge on a scale of 1-5 stars (5 being best) in each of these categories:
 - a. Use of inspiration package
 - b. Story/Script
 - c. Acting
 - d. Directing
 - e. Cinematography
 - f. Sound
 - g. Editing / Effects

The Fredericton Arts Alliance gratefully acknowledges the financial support it receives for ARTSnews from the City of Fredericton

The Fredericton Arts Alliance gratefully appreciates the support of the Sheila Hugh Mackay Foundation in our efforts to use new technology to bring the arts to a wider audience during this period of isolation. We hope this investment will pay off long into the future when we will again be able to interact directly.
