Auditions | Call for Artist Submissions & Awards

1. Audition Call: Branch Out Productions' Legally Blonde: The Musical

For even more arts and cultural events in New Brunswick, visit:

1. UNB presents a Reading by Sarah Tolmie with guest Mary Germaine on Oct. 7 at 7 p.m. online

The University of New Brunswick is pleased to invite you to a virtual literary reading by writer Sarah Tolmie, with special guest Mary Germaine. Sarah Tolmie is the author of a short fiction collection, five novels, and three poetry books, one of which, The Art of Dying, was shortlisted for the 2019 Griffin Poetry Prize. Her forthcoming novel All the Horses of Iceland is a journey through the magical, mythical origin of these famous horses. She will be reading from The Art of Dying and Check.

Mary Germaine is an award-winning poet and PhD student at the University of New Brunswick. Her debut collection, Congratulations, Rhododendrons, offers redemption and love poems to the seemingly unlovely in the world.

This event is free and open to the public via Eventbrite registration: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/unb-reading-series-tickets-180102941747>. ASL interpretation will be provided. This reading is made possible through generous support from the Canada Council for the Arts, UNB Faculty of Arts, UNB Department of English, and The Fiddlehead. Back to top.

2. 2021 Advanced Studio Practice Guest Lecture Series Oct. 7 – Dec. 16 at 12 p.m.

Advanced Studio Practice's Guest Lecture Series is partnering with the Atlantic Centre for Creativity to provide a virtual experience to the annual series. The purpose of the Guest Lecture Series is to model successful contemporary practice to our students and to inform, inspire and ignite art and design dialogue and engagement in the greater public community. They are professional talks delivered by invited guest speakers on art, design and related visual practices. This series is sponsored by the Sheila Hugh Mackay Foundation.

- October 7 – Kirsten Stackhouse
- October 14 – Justine Sappier
- October 21 – Emma Hassencahl-Perley
- October 28 – Echo Chen
- November 4 – Percy Saccobie
- November 18 – Logan Perley
- November 25 – Brigitte Clavette
- December 2 – Reuben Mark Stewart
- December 9 – Sandra Raccine
- December 16 – Jennifer Lee

These noon-hour sessions celebrate the creative, cultural and academic achievements of artists, designers and fine craft practitioners. For further information or to receive updates, please contact Jean.Rooney@gnb.ca. Back to top.

3. Texture and Hue & Love Songs: A Journal of Fateful Encounters at Gallery 78 opens Oct. 8 at 5 p.m.

Opening at Gallery 78 are two exhibitions of new works to get you into the colourful season of fall. Texture and Hue by Matthew Collins explores the irregular and beautiful landscape of southern Nova Scotia through his expressionist and colourist lens. Love Songs: A Journal of Fateful Encounters by Alan Grabelsky features glimpses into what he calls "the sweet spot between intention and accident." His original serigraph prints are thoughtful visual representations of reciprocity and connection.

The works will be available online starting October 5. As per GNB's latest mandates, masks are required indoors, and proof of vaccination is required for entry to the opening only on October 8. Back to top.

4. Adyn Townes' In Frames Album Release with Awolk at Grimross Brewing Co. on Oct. 9 at 8 p.m.

After almost two years of not touring Adyn is ready to hit the road with a brand new album In Frames. Adyn will be joined by Nova Scotian artist Awolk. Tickets are $16.93 at <https://bit.ly/3o9eksN>. Back to top.

5. Spotlight Series presents Twin Flames at The Playhouse on Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m.

Twin Flames is a multi-award-winning Canadian husband and wife singing duo. Honouring their ancestors, they sing songs in English, Inuttitut and French. Pushing the boundaries of contemporary folk, with songs that incorporate both Western and traditional instruments, the pair expertly wraps Indigenous/Inuit stories in traditional and non-traditional styles.

Tickets are on sale for $28 at <https://www.theplayhouse.ca/event/twin-flames/>. Back to top.

6. Upcoming Tertulia: Andrew Moore on Witchcraft, Zoom, Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m.

Andrew Moore is associate professor of Great Books at St. Thomas University. He has published research on a variety of subjects including television, social media, and liberal arts education, but his research focuses primarily on early modern literature and early modern political thought. In this talk, Moore will be discussing early modern witch trials and exploring what early modern English attitudes towards witchcraft can tell us about the emergence of modernity and about modern politics.

To watch on Zoom, register at: <https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJYlfu-hqTlqGN3FmEoQI9-kzs4mV51z4fc->. Tertulias Fredericton is supported by the NB Media Co-op, publisher of videos of the Tertulia talks. For more information, contact: fredericton.tertulia@gmail.com. Back to top.

7. Word Feast 2021 Oct. 13-17 at various Fredericton venues

Word Feast, going into its fifth year, launches on October 13 with both virtual and live events in Fredericton venues. Word Feast's signature Poetry Bash will take place on October 14 at York County Cider, and in-person workshops will be offered at Fredericton Public Library on October 16. The headline event, in partnership with the Fredericton Playhouse, will be an evening of music with a literary twist, featuring Séan McCann and Andrea Aragon performing and reading from their book One Good Reason, on October 16 7:30 p.m. at the Fredericton Playhouse.

Participating authors include members of the New Brunswick Black Artists' Alliance, Brian Bartlett, David Bradford, Lynn Davies, Triny Finlay, Liz Howard, Sophie Lavoie, Pearl Pirie, Matt Robinson, Rebecca Salazar and Sue Sinclair. The festival will also feature an international panel to celebrate Canada's role at the Frankfurt Book Fair this year, with authors Carolyn Gammon, Vanessa Moeller, Renée Von Paschen, and others.

The complete program and more information will be posted on the Word Feast website at <https://wordfeast.ca> in the coming weeks, so all are encouraged to check it frequently. Back to top.

8. Rube & Rake and Jens Jeppesen at Grimross Brewing Co. on Oct. 14 at 8 p.m.

Rube & Rake's new album begins with an ode to family and friends against a hopeful bluegrass backdrop. Jens Jeppesen is a heavy handed bluegrass folk artist with some of the fastest hands you will see. He can tear down the barn walls with his playing while melting you heart with a velvet voice. Tickets are $15 advanced and $20 at the door. Pre-order your tickets at <https://bit.ly/3ufPgkX>. Back to top.

9. Branch Out Productions presents Blithe Spirit in the Bernard Poirier Theatre from Oct. 14-16

Branch Out Productions returns to the stage with a production of Noel Coward's supernatural comedy, Blithe Spirit. This upcoming show couldn't be more timely; it mixes ghosts and séances with a healthy dose of humour, an ideal return to the stage just in time for Halloween. To add an additional spark to the company's return to the stage, BOP have hired a pair of local filmmakers to help bolster the play's haunting atmosphere. Kaitlin Adair and Kaliegh Stultz, will work as Mischief Managers to provide practical effects for the show, and will be using techniques and illusions that probably would have been used when the show was first produced in 1941.

Tickets are $20 for general admission and $15 for students and seniors, and are on sale now at www.branchoutproductions.ca, from the cast, and at the door. Back to top.

10. Herbert the Cow Productions' Skitties, the Second Coming: Messages from God Oct. 14 – 16 at 7:30 p.m.

On October 11, 2021 the course of history forever changed when all 8 billion human beings on Earth collectively, simultaneously, heard the voice of God: a shared telepathic experience. Everyone agreed they heard the voice, although some did not believe it to be divine; however, no one agreed upon what they heard. Every single person on the planet received a personalized message. So...what was your message from God? Do you count yourself among the hopeful or one of the doomsayers?

For this project we are proud to say that we have recruited the talent of 30+ local artists or artists who are Fredericton expats or have deep connections to the region. This show features writers, actors, and even musicians (because some people interpreted "the message" musically).

The show is technically free and anyone can go to our Twitch channel to watch the show at <https://www.twitch.tv/herbertthecowproductions?fbclid=IwAR2u711O0lyaYO7Hr5eq-wOIZEbaC3MrgwVPingFpqIXw3CSPvJPXPEapTU>. We will have a donation button up during the show, so it is Pay-As-You-Will, with payments being excepted via PayPal. For more information, visit <https://www.facebook.com/HerbertTheCowProductions/>. Back to top.

11. A Tribute to R&B, Soul, & Blues with Frank Davis Trio at Grimross Brewing Co. on Oct. 15 at 8 p.m.

We will have international recording artist Frank Davis and his trio playing the songs from the past. You can expect to hear songs from Ray Charles, Howlin' Wolf, Otis Redding, James Brown, Percy Sledge, and others. Tickets are $10 advanced and $15 at the door, and can be purchased at <https://www.eventbrite.com/.../a-tribute-to-rb-soul-and...50%of-proceeds-go-to-Living-Roots-Music-Festival>. Back to top.

12. Upcoming Concerts at The CAP, Oct. 15 & 16

- October 15 at 9 p.m.: Motherhood & Mike Trask - $20 General Admission
- October 16 at 7 p.m.: Run the River, Keegan Dobblesteyn Band & Adam Washburn - $15 General Admission

All tickets are available at <https://bit.ly/3yP82Ad>. Back to top.

13. Nautical Disaster: A Tribute to The Tragically Hip at Grimross Brewing Co. on Oct. 16 at 8 p.m.

Fredericton-based Nautical Disaster will be hitting the Grimross stage for their annual Tragically Hip cover show, celebrating the life and legacy of the great Gord Downie. Join us for Hip tunes and stories spanning across their vast discography. Part of proceeds will be donated to Hip charities, including the Gord Downie Fund for Brain Cancer Research.

Tickets are $10 in advance, or $15 at the door, and are on sale at <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/168492396293>.

Back to top.

14. Word Feast presents Sean McCann & Andrea Aragon at The Playhouse on Oct. 16 at 7:30 p.m.

Founder of iconic Canadian band Great Big Sea, Sean McCann is no stranger to Maritime audiences. A multiple East Coast Music Award winner and recent recipient of the Order of Canada for his advocacy work in recovery and mental health, McCann is returning to the Fredericton Playhouse to celebrate the release of his best-selling memoir One Good Reason (Nimbus). He will be joined onstage by his wife and co-author Andrea Aragon to share stories and songs from the book and his extensive repertoire of East Coast inspired classics. Back to top.

15. Jeunesses Musicales Emerging Artist Concerts 2021-2022

- October 27: Les pêcheurs de perles - Georges Bizet's first opera written at the age of 25.
- November 17: The Truth About Love - Soprano Alexandra Smither and pianist Rachael Kerr, in a witty and uninhibited musical conversation, explore the many facets of love.
- February 9: The Mathieus' Piano - Two pianists, Jean-Michel Dubé and Rosemarie Duval-Laplante, interpret works by André and Rodolphe Mathieu, as well as Mozart, composed for two and four hands. (Please Note: This concert will be held at Christ Church Parish Church, located at 245 Westmorland Street at 7 p.m.)
- April 13: Even Guitars Can Dance - Two guitarists of Cuban origin, Alejandro Vega and Gabriela Iznardo, combine traditional Latin American music and classical training to bring a fresh perspective on the music of the southern continent.

The price of a season ticket for all four concerts is still $90 or $35 for students. The opera on October 27 and the concerts on November 17 and April 13 will be held at the theatre of the Centre Communautaire Sainte-Anne at 7 p.m. Children accompanied by an adult are admitted free of charge. Season tickets are now on sale from committee members or at the Centre Communautaire Saint-Anne reception desk. Don't hesitate to contact us at jmcf@bellaliant.net for any questions you may have. Workshops | Classes | Art Camps

1. The Spirit Project at Charlotte Street Arts Centre on Wednesdays from 1:30 - 3 p.m. through Dec. 15

In 2019, Fredericton-based physical theatre company Solo Chicken Productions and its supporting partners launched an initiative called The Spirit Project. The program offered mixed ability arts-based workshops that created space for folks with and without intellectual disabilities to share their voices, foster their creative spirit and strengthen community. Now entering its third year, The Spirit Project returns this week and invites a mixed ability group of artists to come together each week at The Charlotte Street Arts Centre to create, laugh, dance, play and to demonstrate the positive power of living in a truly inclusive society.

Beginning in late September 2021 Solo Chicken Productions will be welcoming new artists into their creative circle. Fall programming will include creative training with workshops planned in music, dance, theatre, and visual art with an eye to beginning work on a new performance planned for the winter 2022.

Everyone is welcome to join: folks with and without intellectual disabilities, caregivers, support workers, parents, friends, artists and more. The programming is all free and all materials are included plus a healthy snack is offered during each workshop. To learn more about The Spirit Project or to register, contact Project Director Lisa Anne Ross at lisa@solochickenproductions.com or call 238-5440. Back to top.
